Germans Forced to Retreat As Allied Forces Pour Deadly Hail of Shot and Shell Into Their Midst in Effort to Cut Off Left Wing From Right.

CZAR VOWS TO PENETRATE TO BERLIN IF IT COSTS HIM HIS LAST GENERAL

Germans Forced to Withdraw From Upper Alsace—Russians Win Great Battle in Galicia, and Austrians are Retiring In Disorder, Leaving Thousands on Field—"Unknown Factor" Has Reached France and Begins Its Deadly Work—French Fort Falls.

London, Sept. 9.—From what can be gathered from the fleeting glimpses of the battle zone, permitted by the censorship, the British and French armies seem to be effectively driving home their advantage and gaining impetus as they progress. British optimism, which became more pronounced with the first announcement of the "turn of the tide," has been further heartened by the continuation of promising reports from the front. For the first time since the beginning of hostilities an official British representative has described the result of the operations as "very satisfactory." Observers in London claim that if the allied attack on the German center and to the left of the center, whose battle is raging so stubbornly with alternate advances and retirements, is successful, a wedge will be driven between the German right and left which will place the enemy's right in a highly dangerous plight.

Lord Kitchener's "unknown factor," heretofore held to be a great secret which has so altered the situation at the front, is now known to be the arrival of forces from India. Two divisions of infantry and a brigade of cavalry constitute these forces. A dozen Indian potentates have been selected to accompany this expeditionary force.

London, Sept. 9.—The Evening News has published a dispatch from its Rome correspondent who says that Emperor Nicholas is reported in Rome to have made the following declaration:

"I am resolved to go to Berlin itself, even if it costs me to lose my last Moujik."

Berlin, Sept. 9, via wireless to the Associated Press via Sayville, L. I.—Official announcement was made today at army headquarters that the French fortress of Maubeuge, on the Sambre river had fallen.

The Germans took 40,000 prisoners including four generals. 400 guns also were captured.

London, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Central News from Basel, Switzerland, by way of Rome, says that the Germans have evacuated Upper Alsace.

Paris, Sept. 9.—British officers and soldiers arriving from the front today declare that the four days' battle which still continues to the east of Paris is being carried on furiously. They assert that the French captured a considerable number of field and machine guns, while the Germans often surrendered in groups.

Field Marshal Sir John French, the commander-in-chief of the British expeditionary force now fighting with the French army, looked perfectly satisfied with the situation according to the British soldiers. They say he went about the lines smoking a cigarette as though he was on the parade grounds.

ALLIES CROWD THE GERMANS

Paris, Sept. 9.—An official communication issued this afternoon, says the situation remains satisfactory. The German right is retreating before the English. The French center is slowly advancing. The situation in the French right is unchanged.

DEANS' YARD A MILITARY CAMP

The famous Deans' yard of Westminster-abbey utilized as a camp for the troops arriving in London on their way to the continent.

FRENCH REPORT ENEMY RETREATING

Washington, Sept. 9.—A Bordeaux dispatch to the French Embassy says: "On the seventh the French and English offensive had compelled the Germans to withdraw. Two of its army corps have been thrown on the left side of the Ourcq."

"The fourth army has attacked us in the Vitre-La-Francois region. A falling back movement of the enemy has been clearly observed. The success of the Russians continues against the Austrians whose 45th regiment of infantry has surrendered in its entirety."

The Embassy received another message saying: "The Spanish Ambassador in Berlin strongly denies rumors of Spain's unfriendly attitude against Germany and Austria, all Spanish party leaders being for strict neutrality. All the papers speak of the importance of the capture of Maubeuge."

"At Strausburg, after a court martial session, the official statement was made: 'The French authorities, two months before mobilization, organized French "sniping bands" by distributing arms to civilians.'"

FRENCH RESERVISTS ARRIVING IN PARIS

JAPS LAND 20,000 TROOPERS

Peking, China, Sept. 9.—A telegram from German sources states that the Japanese landed 20,000 men at Lung-Kow, a town on the northern coast of the Shan Tung peninsula and that they are now advancing toward Chao-Yua, a town about 80 miles north of Kiao-Chow.

The Japanese censorship is complete. Even Chinese officials in the territory occupied by the Japanese are prevented from communicating freely with Peking while telegraphic communication with Tsing-Tau has been interrupted for a week.

Mail advices from Tsing-Tau, dated September 3, says that the report that the Germans are compelling Chinese laborers to assist in the construction of defenses is untrue. The Chinese, who deserted Tsing-Tau, expecting a bombardment of the city by the Japanese but finding a livelihood outside the district of Kaio Chow impossible, were returned in great numbers.

RUSSIANS CLAIM ANOTHER VICTORY

Rome, Sept. 9.—A dispatch from Petrograd to the Messagero declares that the great battle at Rawa, in Galicia, 32 miles northwest of Lemberg, is over and that the Russians have won a complete victory.

The Austrians are said to be retiring everywhere. Among the prisoners taken by the Russians are a large number of Germans. The Austrians have evacuated Russian-Poland.

KAISER LODGES KICK WITH WILSON

London, Sept. 9.—"There has been published in Copenhagen a telegram which Emperor William sent to President Wilson under date of September 4 telegraphs the Copenhagen correspondent of the London Daily Telegram. "In this message Emperor William protests against the use by the English of dum dum bullets and against the participation of the Belgian population in the war."

"Emp. William adds in communication to Mr. Wilson that his generals have, in certain cases, been compelled to punish the Belgians and he expresses his deep regret at the destruction of Louvain, and other interesting places."

AUSTRIANS SHRINK FROM RUSSIANS

Washington, Sept. 9.—The Russian Embassy here today issued the following statement: "On September 8, a general engagement continued along the whole of the Austrian frontier. In the center the Austrian army is falling back. Near Rava-Russka a stubborn battle is being fought with considerable Austrian forces. Our troops are also attacking a strongly fortified position at Gorodok, west of Lwow (Polish for Lemberg). On the left bank of the Vistula river our advance is developing very favorably."

GERMAN FLAG TAKEN IN BATTLE

Paris, Sept. 9.—"On the banks of the river Ourcq, two German flags have been captured in the course of a great battle. One was taken from the enemy by force by a reservist named Gullmard, who has received the military medal from General Gallieni, commander of the French forces at Paris. This flag is of the 36th regiment of German infantry which was decorated in 1870 with the order of the Iron Cross." The foregoing is an official announcement given out in Paris this afternoon.

FRENCH PEOPLE TAKING HEART

Paris, Sept. 9.—Today's official communication, indicating that the allied armies are holding Germans east of Paris and the retirement of the Germans before the British offensive movement was received with the greatest satisfaction by the French public. Between the lines of the official announcement can be read the fact that fighting of the fiercest kind is in progress and that the battle lines cover a wide territory.

SERVIANS MAKE OFFENSIVE MOVES

Paris, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Nish, Serbia, says that the Servians are continuing their offensive movement against the Austrians in the direction of Vishegrad. They crossed the frontier September 6 and continued to advance successfully. Everywhere the Austrians were thrown back to the left bank of the River Drina.

RUSSIAN OFFICERS AND MEN TAKEN

Washington, September 9.—Seventeen officers and 1,000 men of the Russian Imperial Guard were captured at Breslau by the Filesian Landwehr, according to a wireless today from Berlin to the Germany Embassy.

MONTENEGRINS PLAYING PART

Paris, Sept. 9.—A Havas Agency dispatch from Rome says: "News has reached here that the Montenegrin troops commanded by General Vucotich have occupied important points in Bosnia south of Sarajevo, the capital. The situation in North Albania continues serious."

German Right Wing Turned Near
the Capital to Rejoin the Other Armies from Belgium, the Valley of the Meuse and Luxemburg—Would Bottle Up French Right, Then Assault Paris—French War Office Reports Progress.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The official communique confirms the report that the German right wing, after energetically marching on Paris, has turned to rejoin the other armies of the enemy from Belgium, the valley of the Meuse and Luxemburg.

All the forces are engaged in a general battle with the allied army on
an immense front from Nanteuil,
twenty-five miles northeast of Paris,
to Verdun, the struggle continuing further east in Lorraine and to the Vosges. The fact that the allies' left has driven back the German right
during the past two days without the enemy energetically opposing, show
clearly that the Germans are trying to strike at the allied army now at Paris, thus conforming to the elementary rules of war.

It has occasioned surprise that General Von Kluck's forces could have been pushed so energetically toward Paris and then turned to the southeast at the very moment when an attack by its more advanced force ought to have been made. The real explanation probably is the desire to hold part of the French army in the hazardous positions necessary to cover the capital. The French forces
now form a line in the north of which there remains no army which the Germans can cut off. The German right is approaching the other German armies trying to break through the French lines by a frontal movement. If successful they will be able to return to Paris and attack it. Several days must pass before the results are known.

30,000 Germans Captured.

The Germans are in a hostile country and at distances relatively great
from their homes bases. The invaders today are probably at their greatest strength, while the defenders of France, especially the British contingents, are being augmented steadily.

Accounts of wounded soldiers who reached Paris indicate that the result of the three days' fighting in the Champagne country has been more favorable for the allies than at first supposed.

They say the German losses in killed were enormous and that a great number of prisoners were taken.
French officers estimate the prisoners at 30,000. The Champagne district includes parts of the departments of Marne, Ardennes, Aube and Haute-
Marne.

The Germans are reported in Paris unofficially to have asked for an armistice to bury their dead and care for their wounded. It is understood that the allies refused the request.

The fighting on the long line to the east of Paris probably will last for a number of days. No quick and decisive outcome is expected.

The results of the encounters of the past two days are regarded as distinctly favorable to the allies and there is an atmosphere of cheerfulness
at the French war office.

A Russian army said to number 250,000 men is in France.

War Office's Report.

The French war office issued the following:

"On our left wing the allied armies, comprising the elements of the far outlying defense of Paris, continue to advance from the banks of the Ourcq
river up to the country around Montmirail. The enemy is retreating toward the Marne river between Meaux and Sezanne. French and English troops took a large number of prisoners, notably a battalion of infantry and a company of mitrailleuses and several caissons.

"On our right, a German division attacked us along a line passing through Chateau-Salines and Nancy,
but it was repulsed north of the forest of Champenoux. Elsewhere, farther to the east, our troops retook the crest of Mandray and the pass of Fourneaux. There is no change in

PRINCIPAL POINTS IN PRIESTLY CAREER OF NEW POPE, BENEDICT XV., WHOSE ELECTION CAME AS A SURPRISE

Benedict XV., the new pope, is in his sixtieth year and was the youngest of the five cardinals named last May. His election to the holy see created as much surprise as did the election of Cardinal Sarto, the late Pope Pius X. He was little known among American Catholic clergy. Giacomo della Chiesa was born at Pegli, Italy, on November 21, 1854. He became a priest on Dec. 21, 1878. For years he was the religious intimate of the late Cardinal Rampolla. He accompanied the latter to Madrid in 1883 and remained as secretary of the nunciature until 1887. During that time he was made a monsignor. He returned to Rome with Cardinal Rampolla, who was made secretary of state, and took a minor office under him. In 1901 he was made substitute of the secretariate and secretary of the cipher. He was made archbishop of Bologna on Dec. 16, 1907. Now, after less than seven years there, he has been elected to the sacred college and to the holy see, the highest office in the Roman Catholic church. His election will mean many changes in the Vatican household. Chiesa means "of the church", so that his name actually fits his present exalted office.

ALLIES NOW AGGRESSORS

London, Sept. 9.—The military expert of the Times writes:

"The French have very promptly seized the correct moment for an offensive return and according to the latest news have opened a general attack on the German army on a front extending between Verdun and Paris. It is supposed that the who's forces of the allies are in line with the exception of the troops which are holding back the army of the crown prince of Bavaria in Lorraine.

"The Germans came as far south
of the Marne as Comommiers before they were attacked. They have already been driven back. They are outflanked on their right and the battle is engaged under good conditions
for the success of the allies' cause.
The existence of two great fortresses
of Paris and Verdun in line, gives much support to the progress of the allies. This battle will be watched everywhere with the deepest interest.

"In the German rear Maubeuge is
three of its forts have been destroyed. Antwerp has not yet been seriously attacked.

"Longwy, with its antiquated works,
has made a great fight and has enabled Colonel Darche to cover himself with glory."

JUDGE RECOMMENDS THE SHERMAN LAW

New York, Sept. 9.—In a decision denying a motion for a temporary injunction restraining the proposed merger of the New York Central and
the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railway lines, Judge Grubb in the United States district court suggested that a Sherman law suit would be the best way of determining the legality
or illegality of the merger.

tleship Glory arrived in port conveying the Spanish steamship Montserrat, seized on the high seas with 150
German reservists on board. The Montserat left New Orleans nearly
a month ago.

GEN. SMITH-DORRIEN HEADS SECOND CORPS OF BRITISH IN FRANCE.

General Horace Smith-Dorrien has just been appointed to command the Second army corps of the British expeditionary force in place of the late
General Grierson, who died suddenly.
General Smith-Dorrien was commander in chief at Aldershot from 1907-12. Each army corps is composed of two divisions organized into twenty-four infantry battalions, six cavalry regiments, eight batteries of horse artillery of six guns each, eighteen batteries of field artillery of six guns
each, two howitzer batteries of four guns apiece and troops of the engineer corps, signal corps, army service corps and other details. The general makeup of the expeditionary force is therefore approximately 72
infantry battalions, 18 cavalry regiments, 24 batteries of field artillery
with 144 guns, 54 batteries of field artillery with 324 guns and 6 howitzer batteries with 24 guns. The
First corps is commanded by Lieutenant General Sir Gough Haig and the Third by Major General W. P.
Pulteney.

SENATOR REED STIRS SENATE

Washington, Sept. 9.—The final disposition by the senate of the conference report on the federal trade bill,
which was agreed to by a vote of 43
to 5, was attended with some sensational incidents.

Senator Reed of Missouri alleged that Representative Stephen of New Hampshire and George Rublee, an attorney of New York, had been "lobbying" to secure legislation on the subject of unfair trade practices and when challenged as to why he had not brought the matter to the attention of the lobby committee of the senate, of which Mr. Reed is a member, that senator replied that he had spoken to Senator Overman, chairman of the lobby committee on the subject. Mr. Reed characterized Rub-
lee as a "most persistent" lobbyist.

Chairman Newlands referred to Rublee as a man who is doing a disinterested, patriotic service without any compensation.

It is said that Rublee is a man of independent means.

One Week of September.

September is but little more than one week old but the people of this section have enjoyed, in that time, a wealth of beautiful weather. It's fine to be out of doors these hazy fall days with the bright warm sunlight beaming down from a sky of deep blue. Even at noonday the rays of the sun are not uncomfortably warm and in the dusk of evening with the atmosphere cool and bracing enough to make the wearing of light coats comfortable the human beings who are able to get away from the grind of business long enough to be out in God's big out of doors for one entire long September day, from early morning until late in the evening, are indeed fortunate.

The weather this fall promises to be, from the sample which nature has furnished us this first week in September, ideal. The rains have come and the grass and trees and all forms of vegetation have freshened up. New life has been injected into the trees, the leaves have taken a firmer hold on the branches and they promise to remain on the trees until the early frosts tint the woods with a multitude of colors.

Frequently the foliage is so withered by the prolonged droughts of late summer and early fall, that our eccentric friend, Jack Frost, finds nothing to mix his colors on when he arrives to paint the landscape with his reds and golds and browns.

This year he will find a wealth of leaves green and firm and full of life and the fantastic combinations of colors which he will spread over the wooded hill sides will be a joy to see.

One of the greatest pleasures of life in the great out of doors is to go down into the hill country during the ideal fall weather, climb to the top of one of the rugged old piles of earth and rock, look down into the valleys and across the fertile valley to the range of hills beyond, and yet farther into other valleys to other ranges of hills until outline is lost to sight until the multitude of colors is blended into one and hill and valley, wildwood and cultivated field are enchanting blue haze.

One can stand at the top of one of the grand old hills of Ross county and gaze at the wonders of nature and the beauty of it all and never grow tired.

When the gathering darkness obscures the view of the valleys beneath one regrets that nature's great panorama of the world can no longer be seen. That regret abides until the odor of boiling coffee and frying potatoes, coming from the cottage in the hollow reminds one that he has an appetite that demands attention and dispelling the thoughts of what was, increase the rapidity with which the steps which lead back home, are taken.

It's good to live, of course, any time, but it seems doubly good to be alive and well and able to be out during the glorious days of September and October.

No man can see nature preparing for winter without feeling on better terms with himself and with all the world besides.

The best place to lose a grouch is to take a trip in the country, climb a big hill and see how big, how beautiful, how peaceful and serene our mother nature is, and realize how small man is and how light our burden is compared with hers, how beautifully she does her work and how pleasant it is to see the results of her quiet work.

Poetry For Today

FOR ALL WE HAVE AND ARE.

For all we have and are,
For all our children's fate,
Stand up and meet the war!
The Hun is at the gate.
Our world has passed away.
In wantonness o'erthrown.
There's nothing left today
But steel and fire and stone.
Though all we knew depart,
The old commandments stand:
"In courage keep your heart!
In strength lift up your hand!"

II.

Once more we hear the word
That sickened earth of old:
"No law except the sword, Unsheathed and uncontrolled!"
Once more it knits mankind:
Once more the nations go
To meet and break and bind
A crazed and driven foe.

III.

Comfort, content, delight—
The ages' slow bought gain—
They shriveled in a night.
Only ourselves remain
To face the naked days
In silent fortitude,
Through perils and dimays
Renewed and re-renewed,
Though all we made depart,
The old commandments stand:
"In patience keep your heart!

IV.

No easy hopes or lies
Shall bring us to our goal,
But iron sacrifice
Of body, will and soul.
There's but one task for all—
For each one life to give.
Who stands if freedom fall?
Who dies if England live?
—Rudyard Kipling.

EUROPEAN ALLIANCES.

The Many Changes That Have Come In The Last Century.

In the history of Europe during the past century nothing is more curious than the easy way in which national alliances have been made, broken, made again and changed as dynastic, economic and racial reasons have demanded. Here are a few of these political transformations:

In 1815 Russia, Prussia, England and Austria combined against France and crushed the power of Napoleon forever.

In 1849, when revolution in Hungary threatened the house of Hapsburg in Austria, Russia intervened and by force of arms placed the present emperor, Francis Joseph, firmly upon his throne.

In 1856 England, France, Austria and Italy allied themselves with the Turks against Russia in the Crimean war.

In 1859 France defeated Austria in Italy and gave a great impetus to the unification of Italy.

In 1866 Prussia gave its present ally, Austria, a fearful beating at Sadova and forced it out of first place in the Germanic confederation.

In 1870 Prussia inflicted upon France the defeat, with accompanying loss of territory, that has been the cause of Europe's unrest ever since.

In 1877 Russia defeated the Turks decisively, but was cheated out of the rightful fruits of her victory by a combination of the other powers in the treaty of Berlin.

Old enmities and friendships are now forgotten, and Italy, which detests both Austria and Germany, has been united with them in the triple alliance, while those old time enemies, England and Russia, are allied with France in the triple entente.

SHOOTING A DEER.

The Tropical Poisoned Arrow Sent Him to Sleep and Death.

Hunting with poison, as practiced by the natives of Brazil and other tropical American countries, is thus described in a communication to the National Geographic society, at Washington, by Dewey Austin Cobb:

"In hunting, the arrows, which are dipped in poison, consist of a point of wood or bone, not more than an inch long and the size of a toothpick, to which is attached a little tuft or hairy fiber of the silk cotton tree. The gun is a straight bamboo tube from five to six feet long, with a sight at one end and a funnel shaped expansion to fit the mouth at the other. The principle is precisely the same as the schoolboy's tube for blowing putty balls, and the accuracy of the natives is wonderful."

Mr. Cobb gives the following description of the shooting of a deer:

"A good sized buck walked out of the corn and stopped, exposing to us its full broadside as we lay some thirty feet away. Our hunter fired. The animal gave a slight start as he felt the prick of the arrow on his flank and turned partly around, sniffing the air for a scent and looking around as if searching for the insect that had bitten him. Detecting nothing, he stood still and unalarmed. At the end of a minute or so his head dropped a little, as if he was sleepy. The hunter stepped out in plain sight. The deer looked at him and moved forward, not away from him, a few steps and stopped. He showed no fear, but simply curiosity.

"My companion and I rose, and the three of us walked quietly within reach of him. He made no movement to run away, but watched us intently and shifted his position a little. His movements seemed perfectly easy and natural. Absence of fear seemed the only observable change until at the end of three minutes or more; then he lay down, not falling, but as naturally as a cow or sheep when ready for sleep. His breathing seemed easy and natural. At the end of ten minutes, though he opened his eyes when touched, his breath became shorter and slower. Eighteen minutes after he was struck by the arrow he was dead."

ACOUSTIC CLOUDS.

Why Church Bells Sound Louder on Some Days Than on Others.

Every one has noticed that on certain days church bells are heard much better than on others and sometimes are not heard at all on other days. The same distance intervenes between the church and the person's residence, the same intensity is used to strike the bell, the same visible obstacles are between the two at one time as at another.

Then why does the intensity of the peal vary? It has been found that there are what is known as "acoustic clouds" in the air. They cannot be seen, but they may be detected artificially. They have the property of reflecting sound just as a brick wall has. So if a thick one of these so called "clouds" intervenes between the church bell and the observer most of the sound is reflected back to the bell, and very little gets through. The acoustic clouds consist simply of a large quantity of water vapor in the air, and water vapor itself is invisible. So we are able to see through something that we cannot hear through. Generally, of course, it is the other way round. We can hear through a piece of black paper, but we cannot see through it.

Now, if these acoustic clouds are disposed in a certain manner it is possible that they will reflect the sound into a region where the bell's tone is ordinarily not heard at all save when the clouds are present and disposed in the proper manner.—Chicago Herald.

Still Observe Druid Festival.

The old midsummer fire festival of druidical origin is still celebrated on the continent, but there is probably only one spot in Great Britain where it is still observed, and that is Tarbolton, in Ayrshire. For days before the festival the village lads collect materials for the great bonfire. The fuel is built upon an altar of turf, and a match is applied at sunset, after which the folk solemnly march around the blaze, and the daring youngsters vie with one another in dashing through the flames.—London Tit-Bits.

Dangerous Occupation.

"Does my practicing make you nervous?" asked the man who is learning to play the cornet.

"It did when I first heard the neighbors discussing it," replied the sympathetic person. "But now I'm getting so I don't care what happens to you."—Washington Star.

Preparing For the Fray.

"I'm going to make a speech that will make my friends sit up."

"You're on the wrong track," replied the experienced campaigner. "See if you can't make one that will cause the other fellows to lie down."—Washington Star.

Nail Holes In Wood.

Old nail holes in wood may be filled up by mixing sawdust with glue till it is the consistency of stiff paste. Press this compound into the holes, and it will become as hard as the wood itself.

Early Impressions.

Early impressions are not easily erased. The virgin wax is faithful to the signet, and subsequent impressions seem rather to indent the former ones than to eradicate them.

RATS LIKE TO GNAW TUSKS.

And Thus the Rodents Are a Help to the Ivory Workers.

There is a curious but little known fact that well illustrates the ravages that rats can inflict on the hardest substances with their sharp little teeth.

Many of the elephants' tusks imported into London for the use of ivory ornament makers have their surfaces grooved into small furrows of unequal depth, as if cut by a very sharp edged instrument. Surely no man can have taken the trouble to do that, for what would be the profit of his labor?

The rats are at the bottom of the mischief. They have found out the tusks that contain the most gelatin or animal glue, a sweet and delicious morsel for the rat's dainty palate, and having gnawed away as much as suited their purpose, have left the rest for the ivory cutter. He, for his part, is able and willing to profit by the fact that the rats have made clear.

The ivory that contains a large amount of gelatin is softer and more elastic than that which does not, and as elasticity is the thing most needed for billiard balls the ivory worker chooses this rat marked ivory and turns it into beautiful, elastic billiard balls. The elasticity of some of the balls is so great that if thrown down forcibly on a hard pavement they will rebound into the hand to the height of three or four feet.—Exchange.

WHERE RAIN IS A NOVELTY.

Think of Having a Shower Only Once In Twenty-four Years!

The Chilean provinces of Atacama, Tarapaca and Taena are in the rainless region, or desert country west of the Andes, and are entirely devoid of vegetation. The winds in all of this region are from the east and in passing over the elevated perpetual snows of the Andes are stripped of their moisture and arrive on the coast perfectly dry.

The last rain, a slight shower which fell in Antofagasta, in Atacama province, was the first rain which had fallen in sixteen years. The last rain which fell in Iquique, in Tarapaca province, was the first in twenty-four years. With both of these showers a notable phenomenon occurred. The bare hills back of these cities assumed a green tint from a little plant which sprang up almost in a night. The query is, "From where did this plant come?"

The whole of the coast presents a most dismal and discouraging appearance from the sea, but the climate is healthy, being especially adapted to pulmonary and throat troubles from its extreme dryness and freedom from germs. The heat is modded by a local sea breeze, and the sea bathing is most invigorating, as the water is cold.

No Tip For Him.

Tipping is at least an ancient custom. In the eighteenth century an Italian visitor to England remarked that "it is polite to dine with the nobility, where you pay the servants for ten times as much as you eat." And an Irish peer replied to the Duke of Ormonde's invitation to dine: "If your grace will give me a guinea to pay your servants, I will I am too poor, else!" An American actor who once took an English house for the summer had a schedule of the tips his servants expected printed for the guidance of his American friends and put them on the bedroom mantelpieces. He had taken a particular dislike to a very British side whiskered butler he had taken over with the house, and the list, after enumerating the sums to be paid to the chauffeur, the housemaid, and so on, finished with, "The guy with the black whiskers you will meet in the front hall—not a cent!"—Argonaut.

DEEP INTEREST TAKEN IN ANNUAL W. C. T. U. MEETING

DELEGATES FROM ALL OVER COUNTY ATTEND

New Departmental Superintendents Named—Resolutions to be Forwarded to Congressmen—1915 Convention to be Held in This City.

The impetus of the morning session of the County Convention, W. C. T. U., held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday, was felt in the afternoon session, which rounded out one of the most notable gatherings of the kind among the unions of the county.

The importance of the big issues of the fall political campaign, as they are taken up by the white ribbons, was sufficient to stamp the convention as distinctive.

Not alone is the prohibition movement to be urged by word; it is to be impressed by posters and literature, of which an immense supply was distributed for the use of the unions. The large posters will be put up all over the county to attract general attention and are very strong in their appeal to men and women, especially to voters. One of the largest posters blazoned in scarlet letters "Home rule as amended by brewers means rum rule or home ruin."

The principle address of the day given by Miss Mary Ervin, of Cedarville, secretary Loyal Temperance Legion, was listened to with much interest by an increased audience at the afternoon session. Miss Ervin said she had never taken up any work as inspiring as this lining up of young people in the temperance cause, nor had she ever found people more responsive. She showed the scarlet and blue caps and pennants which will be worn by girls and boys during the campaign. The caps show in white letters Y. C. P., standing for "Young Campaigners for Prohibition", and the pennants the slogan, "The Liquor Traffic Must Go". Miss Ervin works largely through the Sunday schools and especially in the cities. The union as a body endorsed the movement.

The convention put itself on record as strongly in favor of suffrage.

The memorial sketch of Lillian M. Stevens was prepared by Mrs. T. L. Haas and read by Mrs. Margaret Barclay, of Madison Mills. It was supplemented by beautiful tributes from Mrs. P. J. Henness and Miss Ervin.

The annual address of the president, Mrs. Alice H. Taggart, impressed the delegates and visitors anew with the ability and strength of their chosen leader and was an inspiration in the work to every union.

Sugar Grove union was awarded the banner for the committees on physical education.

The report of committees put in the following department superintendents:

Franchise, Mrs. Julia Kennedy and Mrs. Greiner; Flower Mission, Mrs.

Augusta Haines; Fair, Miss Della Templin; Mothers' Meetings and Evangelistic, Mrs. Alice Adams; L. T. L., Miss Ruth Hanna; Literature, Mrs. Amanda Post; Anti-Narcotics, Mrs. Florence Hurst; Physical Education, Mrs. Laura York; S. T. L., Mrs. Chas. Stafford; Contest, Mrs. Hallie King; Medical Temperance, Mrs. J. W. Hughey; Sunday School, Miss Stella Wetson; Press, Mrs. Mabel King.

Short talks were made by Mr. Clem Hopkins, leader of the Y. P. B., of Madison Mills; Rev. Ricketts and Rev. Hostettler on "State-wide Prohibition."

Rev. Hostettler announced the plans for organization of the county to defeat the brewers' amendment.

In connection with the department reports it was announced that Miss Stella Watson, of Staunton, made her mother a life member of the W. C. T. U.

A motion was made that the corresponding secretary draft resolution, voicing sentiment of county W. C. T. U. in favor of national prohibition and forward to our congressmen.

The invitation of Washington W. C. T. U. was accepted for the convention of 1915, and a vote of thanks tendered to the president, Miss Ervin, to the members of Presbyterian church for the use of the church and to the choir for its music.

A most enjoyable social feature of the day was the delicious basket dinner, brought by members of the different unions, and served in the church dining room.

The local union, Mrs. C. A. Stafford president, added hot coffee and attended to the serving.

BREAD PRICES TO BE RAISED

Great Advance in Cost of Producing the Ever Necessary Loaf to Cause Small Advance in Price in This City When Present Supply of Flour is Exhausted.

Within a short time, unless there is a decided slump in the price of wheat and sugar, the price of bread will be increased by the bakers in this city, the increase to be a few cents per dozen wholesale, and loaves to be retailed at five cents straight. For the present the price will remain unchanged, retail, but an increase of 2c per dozen wholesale has already been made.

The only thing that has prevented a general increase in bread up to the present time is that the local bakers had purchased a large amount of flour before the advance in price, and have been using the flour purchased a few weeks ago.

When the next flour is purchased, then the bakers will be forced to advance the price of bread as above stated, and if the price of wheat continues to advance, a further advance in the price of bread must take place, and it may be added that this is looked for.

STRANDED IN SWITZERLAND

Bishop William F. Anderson.

Bishop Wm. F. Anderson, resident bishop of this area, is now stranded in Switzerland, or rather was in that country when last heard from.

Under ordinary circumstances Bishop Anderson would have presided over the 103rd session of the Ohio Conference in this city next week, but the Board of Bishops, at a meeting some months ago, decided to send Bishop Anderson to East Africa to inspect the missions in that country and report conditions.

Bishop Anderson left for Europe several weeks ago, and was forced to stop in Switzerland when hostilities opened between the several nations.

As soon as possible Bishop Anderson will probably complete his journey, and in the meantime may be exposed to grave dangers should the Balkan states plunge into the fray and cause an uprising against the Christians.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY WILL FOSTER JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

Y. M. C. A. Women Plan Innovation In Assuming Charge of Junior Department Work — Two Booster Parties From Other Cities Coming Soon and Plan to Serve Luncheon At Y. M. C. A. is Now Under Way.

The responsibility of the conduct of the Y. M. C. A. Junior Department has been solved and from this time on will be assumed wholly by the Women's Auxiliary of the Association. This was decided at a meeting of that body this week and the members are preparing various plans for the financing of the project.

One of these is in connection with the visit of two booster organizations due to arrive in Washington, enroute about the first on October. One of these is the Commercial Club of Springfield and the other the Commercial Club of Cincinnati. Both have given notice of their intention to visit Washington but neither have named the day. The women of the auxiliary are arranging, as a means of increasing the Junior fund, to give dinners at the Y. M. C. A. for the booster parties.

Another project that is being discussed at length is the holding of a bazaar in the Y. M. C. A. building about the last of October for the same purpose.

The Junior department has become a problem with the Y. M. C. A. directors who find it necessary to use their funds sparingly and recently the financing of this branch of the work has caused them no little anxiety. It may be inferred then that the timely offices of the Women's Auxiliary will meet with the hearty appreciation of the board.

The project of securing a junior secretary, advanced some weeks ago, has been discarded for what is unanimously believed to be a far better plan. Instead, the department will come under the direct control of a cabinet, composed of about twelve of the older boys of the department, and under the indirect supervision of General Secretary Patton and the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. This cabinet is already in formation. A meeting was held at the association building Tuesday night and the following four members chosen: Harold Hays, chairman; Richard Willis, secretary; Sherman Brownell and Glen Boots. The others will be filled in as organization progresses.

FALL FESTIVAL

Annual Gala Event at Chillicothe September 21st to 26th, Attracting Great Attention, With Everything Planned on Elaborate Scale.

Chillicothe during the week of September the 21st to 26th, will present to the public of Central Southern Ohio, the Second Annual Farmers' Fall Festival.

The Festival last year was a pronounced success—magazines throughout the United States published elaborate articles describing it as a unique and progressive annual gala week, something out of the ordinary.

This year it is vastly improved—more highly decorated uniform booths, more elaborate merchants and manufacturers' displays, and demonstrations, more gorgeous street decoration, more dazzling electrical display, more premium departments, more glittering pageants, a new electric horse stadium, more music and bands, new and beautiful monster electric umbrellas at the street intersections in the Festival district, five world-renowned free attractions,—truly the most wonderful exposition in all Ohio, and everything free.

The entries in all departments are triple those of a year ago—insuring a large display and an awakening of keen, friendly rivalry for supremacy.

In the horse department this year, the committee has arranged a Mammoth Electric Stadium. Here the lady and gentlemen riders and drivers will vie with one another for the splendid prizes offered. The Pony show will augment the interest in this department. Admission is free to the Stadium.

Exposition hall is a new addition to the Festival. Here will be found the Educational department, the exhibit of the Ross county schools, a demonstration of manual training work, domestic science, and all of the new and progressive ideas in education. The Art hall with hundreds of specimens of painting and decorating, the fancy-work department, with countless pieces of fancy-work—and all free, as no admission is charged to the Exposition hall.

Not only has the Fall Festival attracted the attention of our state government, who are sending interesting display, but the United States government is sending its big and instructive "Parcel Post" display—the first time shown in Ohio.

Last year in the hustle, bustle and excitement of the first festival, some big features were overlooked, that are receiving a lot of attention this year. Last year, the parades were, with one or two exceptions overlooked, but this year, for weeks, this branch of the work has been receiving marked attention. Big Tableaux cars, emblematic of every class of mercantile and industrial endeavor, are under construction, and the pageants of the second Festival will be gorgeous, glittering affairs, out-shining anything of this character ever attempted in this city.

"Chillicothe Night", Monday night, the big opening and dedicatory parade. Tuesday night, "The Appreciation parade. Wednesday afternoon, "Horse Show parade". Wednesday night, motorcycle parade. Thursday afternoon, "Bill club" parade. Thursday night, Fraternal lantern parade, 1000 uniformed Woodmen of the World, attending Woodmen conclave, will participate; also second review of the mercantile and industrial tableaux cars. Friday afternoon baby carriage parade. Friday night, beautiful automobile parade, and third review of gorgeous tableaux cars. Saturday afternoon, farm wagons on parade. Saturday night, Mardi Gras parade, everybody en masque. Truly an array of demonstrations, all free, never before equaled.

At the World's fair at Chicago, the B. & O. railroad system had on exhibition "The Atlantic", the oldest railroad engine in the world, built in 1832. Immediately after, this precious old relic was taken to Baltimore, and placed in a specially built fireproof house, and no end of persuasion could induce high B. & O. officials to exhibit it. But this year, through extraordinary efforts, the "Old Atlantic" will be at the Fall Festival, and on Monday night it will steam over the city street railway, carrying Governor James M. Cox, Mayor James A. Cahill and other dignitaries, to the reviewing stand for the dedicatory ceremonies.

Chillicothe invites every one to her big free gala week, sincerely believing that it will be a pleasant, instructive and entertaining visit.

In Social Circles

A very attractive card party of the early autumn season, with the golden blossoms of autumn's favorite flowers, golden glow and golden rod, adding to its charm, was given by Mrs. R. C. Kyle and Mrs. W. B. Rogers Wednesday afternoon.

A congenial coterie of beautifully gownned women about forty in number, engaged in a five hundred game, the trophy, a corsage bouquet of Killarney roses, won by Mrs. J. M. Willis.

A delicious collation was served at the close of the game.

Assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. Joseph H. Harper, Mrs. George H. Hitchcock, Misses Gertrude and Edith Gardner, Louise Weaver and Hilda Kyle.

Mrs. Ernest Barr and Miss Clara Barr, of Greenfield, were out-of-town guests.

From the Ohio State Journal of Tuesday we cull an interesting nuptial event of the Capital city:

"There was a pretty wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Hanna in Woodland avenue at six o'clock last evening, when Miss Geraldine Hanna, their daughter, became the wife of Dr. Evan Coleman Brock. Rev. Dr. S. S. Palmer officiated. Miss Adelaide Hanna was her sister's maid of honor and Mr. Loring Brock of Washington C. H., a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Only immediate relatives were present. Dr. Brock and his bride left last evening for the East. Upon their return they will be at home at 991 Bryden Road."

Dr. Brock is the son of Mrs. Jos.

Kimball, of this city, and a popular type of fellow, who has friends galore in Washington C. H., his home town. He is recognized as one of the leading young surgeons of Columbus and is house physician at Mt. Carmel hospital.

Mrs. Kimball, Dr. Loring Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mallow, were the only Washington C. H. guests in attendance at the wedding.

Miss Irene Holahan has issued invitations for a party Saturday afternoon from four until six o'clock, at the Stinson conservatory. At three o'clock Miss Holahan, who has been a conservatory student all summer, gives a piano recital.

At two o'clock four tiny tots of the first year conservatory, Virginia Baughn, Gwendolin Baughn, Florence Hynes and Dorothy Post and one small boy, Vivian Baughn, will give their first program at the conservatory.

Miss Mary Robinson gave a beautiful six o'clock dinner in honor of her nephew, Logan Herbert, of Columbus, Tuesday night.

It was an affair of elaborate courses and table decorations of pink cosmos and fern.

After the dinner rugs were rolled back from the hardwood floors and the guests enjoyed informal dancing to Victrola music.

The guests were Misses Bessie Casey, Jeanette Weaver, Mary Alice Culhan, Jean Fitzgerald, Logan Herbert, Ervin Bailey, Paul Craig, Robert Craig.

Mrs. Nathan Snooks, of Columbus, is the guest of her brother, Mr. Sherrill Clark, and family today, while here to attend the funeral of Miss Kingsbury.

Mr. Arthur Conn, who was called here by the illness and death of his mother, Mrs. H. V. Conn, has returned to his home in Uniontown, Pa.

Mr. George Browne came up from Cincinnati Wednesday afternoon to join Mrs. Browne for the marriage of their son, Mr. Ralph Browne and Miss Bonham, tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slagle arrived from Detroit, Mich., Tuesday night to visit Mr. Slagle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Slagle, of Jasper.

Mrs. Arthur Findley came over from Yellow Springs to attend the funeral of Miss Carolyn Kingsbury, and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Colaw.

Miss Nina Cline is visiting Washington friends today, enroute from a visit in New Albany, Ind., to her home in Jamestown.

Miss Helen Bireley left Wednesday evening for a two weeks' visit with friends in Columbus and Xenia.

Mrs. Will Thurston and son, Robert, of San Francisco, Cal., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lipka (nee Jessie McElwain), who have been visiting relatives in Good Hope and vicinity, left Wednesday morning for their home in Boston, Mass.

Miss Jean Palmer returned Tuesday from a visit in Cincinnati.

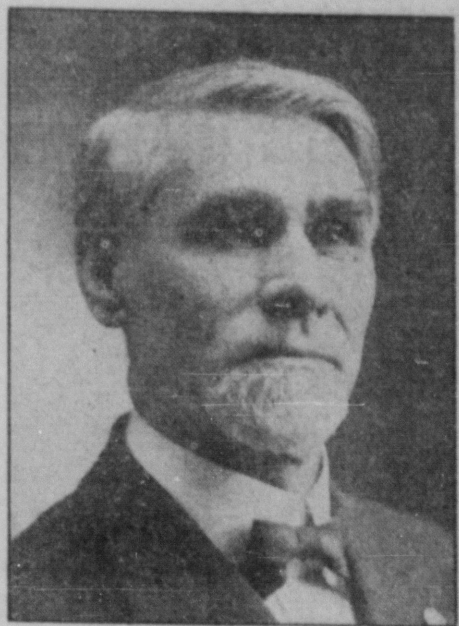

Mrs. Chas. Rolison, of Columbus, is the guest of Mr. J. W. Duffee and family, for a few days.

Mrs. Ora Brannan, a former resident of Washington, and Mrs. R. S. Tice, who some months ago returned from Victoria, Mexico, are guests of their brothers, Levi and Sherman Reeder. They have with them a native Mexican boy from the Missionary school, whom they are educating.

DR. J. C. ARBUCKLE TO LEAVE DISTRICT

Dr. J. C. Arbuckle, former pastor of Grace M. E. church, but for the past six years superintendent of the Lancaster district of the Ohio M. E. Conference, is one of the four superintendents whose time limit expires this year, and he will be appointed to other work than that of district superintendent.

Dr. Arbuckle, whose pleasing personality and general characteristics draw friends to him wherever he goes is one of the best known divines in the Ohio Conference, and it is with sincere regret that the churches of the Lancaster district see him leave.

Former pastor of Grace church, who leaves the Lancaster district after next week.

Mrs. Will Thurston and son, Robert, of Bakersfield, Cal., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mayer.

Miss Emma Smith is spending a few days at Parkhurst Home, the guest of Mrs. Ella Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Neil and children returned Tuesday evening from a ten days' visit in Lorain county.

MRS. H. V. CONN LAID TO REST

With services of beautiful simplicity conducted by Rev. A. W. West, pastor of the First Baptist church, all that was mortal of Mrs. Hannah Vance Conn was laid to rest Tuesday afternoon.

Sympathizing friends filled the home to overflowing and the High School teachers attended in a body.

The pastor read the hymns "Lead Kindly Light," and "Rock of Ages" and made a short address. He referred tenderly to the home loving mother and the reciprocal affection existing between her and her children, and to the exceptionally strong character which had been tested out in years of invalidism and suffering.

The sons and daughters bore out their mother's casket, covered with flowers. A long line of carriages accompanied them to the cemetery, where the burial was made in the family lot.

There was a profusion of lovely flowers sent by friends far and near, among them a casket spray of pink roses and asters from the Washington High School; casket spray of asters from the F. L. Stutson store; wreath of asters from Public School teachers and spray from the Missionary Circle of the First Baptist church. Among relatives who came to attend the funeral were Mrs. Clara V. Larkins, Mr. Jay Vance, of Hillsboro; Mrs. Margaret Giber, Mrs. Carrie Lemons, of New Market.

OVERDRIVES HORSES WHILE INTOXICATED

Arthur Peterson, colored, faced Mayor Coffey Tuesday afternoon upon a charge of cruelty to animals, and another charge of intoxication, the former charge being filed by Commissioner Harry F. Brown, as a result of the young man over-driving a team of horses owned by Mr. Brown.

The young man had driven a team to Bainbridge and upon the return Tuesday night nearly ruined the horses by fast driving. Learning that Peterson was mistreating the horses, Mr. Brown sent out after him, and found the team and wagon at the roadside near Good Hope, with Peterson in an intoxicated condition in the wagon. His arrest followed.

When Peterson faced Mayor Coffey he said that two men had climbed into the wagon with him and had given him whiskey, after which they did the driving, and the next thing he knew was when he awoke to find himself in the wagon bed.

Upon the charge of cruelty to animals he was fined $10 and the costs, and for being intoxicated he drew the usual $5 and the costs, and made arrangements to pay the amount, whereupon he was released from custody.

It was necessary to work with the horses all night to prevent them from suffering permanently from the inhuman treatment they had received by over-driving.

HENRY IS RELEASED AFTER INVESTIGATION

John Henry, of Greenfield, who was picked up and brought to this city because he posed as "one of the men" who stole a horse from Jack Vance, a week or ten days ago, was released Tuesday after an investigation by Chief Moore and Mayor Coffey.

The man was detained, after he had, during intoxication, confessed to having taken part in the theft of the Vance horse. When he was examined it became evident that he knew nothing at all of the affair, and his release followed.

BOOSTS REVENUE HUNDRED MILLION

First Draft of the Emergency
Bill Completed.

HOUSE TO GET IT NEXT WEEK

Measure Increases Income Tax and Reduces Exemptions of That Law,
Taxes Wine and Rectified Spirits
and Increases Tax on Beer—Gasoline,
Playing Cards and Cigarettes
Also to Help Swell the Revenue.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The first draft of the emergency revenue bill that is to be passed in accordance with the plan of President Wilson was completed by the Democratic members of the committee on ways and means. The essential details of the bill which will be submitted to the house the latter part of this or early next week are:

First, an increased normal rate of the income tax, and a reduction in the exemptions of that law; second, a tax on wines and rectified spirits and an increase in the tax on beer; third, taxes on gasoline, sleeping car tickets, playing cards, cigarettes and a few other articles.

It is estimated that the changes in the income tax law will yield additional revenues approximating $35,000,000; the tax on rectified spirits $2,000,000, the tax on wines $10,000,000, the increase on beer approximately $33,000,000; total $80,000,000. The balance of the $100,000,000 is to be raised through the levies on gasoline, Pullman car tickets, playing cards, cigarettes, etc.

The imposition of additional internal taxes is expected to result in a deterioration or a reduction in package sizes of the articles taxed. This took place when an additional tobacco tax was imposed during the Spanish-American war. The reduced size of packages continues, although the tax long ago was repealed. So far as the consumer is concerned, it frequently is stated that the government might as well have had the benefit of the tax during the last fourteen years, because the smoker has continued to pay for it. This consideration may rise again when the question of repealing the new revenue act becomes acute. Previous experience may operate to support Democrats in a contention that the additional taxes should not be repealed.

Under the proposed changes the income tax would be 1½ per cent on incomes of single persons in excess of $2000 and the same on married persons in excess of $3000. In addition, the 1½ per cent increase would be added pro rata in accordance with the increased sur taxes on incomes in excess of $20,000.

London, Sept. 9.—An official list of casualties of British officers is published here. It comprises 10 killed, 29 wounded and 46 missing. The Gordon Highlanders suffered severely.

SALVATION ARMY GETS A DAMPER

Los Angeles, Sept. 9.—The Salvation Army was denied a permit further to conduct its business in this city. The action was taken by the municipal charities commission and its effect will be to halt all activities of the army in the collection of alms and in the operation of industrial stores and workmen's hotels and everything else except purely religious work. The refusal of the permit was based on charges that a third of the money collected is sent to London and other centers. A rule of the charities commission prescribes that all alms collected here shall be used here.

Ghent Buys HER IMMUNITY

Ostend, Belgium, Sept. 9.—By agreeing to furnish the Germans food valued at $10,000,000 the city of Ghent evaded occupation by the Kaiser's forces.

CUBA TO EMULATE HER UNCLE SAM

Washington, Sept. 9.—Cuba probably will follow the precedent established by the United States in censoring wireless messages sent from its shores. Dr. Cespedes, the Cuban minister, made it clear that Cuba intends to enforce absolute neutrality.

Hats On.

It is customary in Quito when a visitor takes off his hat upon entering a room to beg him to put it on again, and, in the absence of permission, leave is generally requested. This, it is said, arises from apprehension that cold will be taken by remaining uncovered.

HUNTING THE CHINCHILLA.

Andean Natives Use Trained Dogs or a Sort of Weasel.

High up on the eastern slope of the Andes, in sections of Peru, Bolivia and Chile, the chinchilla has its habitat. Living at an elevation from 8,000 to 12,000 feet above the level of the sea, its chilly home is responsible for its thick, warm coat and also largely for the exorbitant price it brings. Such coats are hard to get and not plentiful, therefore they are wanted.

"It is a hopping rodent mammal," writes W. A. Reid of the chinchilla in the Bulletin of the Pan-American Union. "somewhat resembling our common squirrel, and when standing upon its hind legs, as it does when eating, the similarity is even more noticeable. Ordinarily the body of the animal is about ten inches in length, exclusive of the tail. It is covered with a gray fur, soft and silky, which on the sides is about an inch long.

"Chinchillas burrow in the ground and live together in villages, like our prairie dogs. The natives of the Andean regions hunt them with trained dogs or with grisons. What is a grison? The South American cousin to our weasel and just about as cunning, and he easily slips into the rocky crevices, where the chinchilla seeks to hide, and captures it.

"Since the fur of the chinchilla was first introduced into Europe during the earlier part of the nineteenth century the price of the skins has soared until a lady's muff and collar of only medium size made of this material command a price of $500 or more."

AUSTRIANS BEAT GENERAL RETREAT

Russians Claim Whole Front Is Falling Back.

SUPPLY TRAINS ABANDONED

Three Fortresses the Only Obstacles the Austrians Now Have to Prevent the Russian Advance—Strong Austrian Positions Stormed and Captured by the Enemy—Germans in Force in Posen District.

London, Sept. 9.—Russian newspapers publish a report from an authoritative source to the effect that there are signs of a general retreat of the Austrians on their whole front between the Rivers Bug and Vistula.

The fortresses of Przemyel and Jaroslau, on the River San, and Cracow, on the Vistula river, are the only obstacles the Austrians now have to prevent the Russian advance.

Przemyel is a strongly fortified military camp, 51 miles west of Lemberg and Poland.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the strong Austrian forts at Nicolaioff and Mikolajow, situated in Galicia, about twenty-five miles southwest of Lemberg, were captured by the Russians September 5.

The Austrian forts at Nicolaioff, which have been captured by the Russians, have enormous strategic importance. The city is at the intersection of the railroad lines leading into the Carpathian country.

An official statement says that Russian cavalrymen now are upon the crest of the Carpathian mountains. The Austrians retreated from Nicolaioff, abandoning their supply trains. The Russians took many prisoners and also captured forty guns and great quantities of ammunition.

Aeroplanes are appearing on the Russian frontier, heralding the arrival of reinforcements.

The Germans seem to possess a powerful force in the Posen district. They move their troops from Posen to East Prussia or Galicia as occasion demands.

RUSSIAN RUSH IS REPULSED

Washington, Sept. 9.—The German embassy reports a new victory for German arms in East Prussia. A wireless report from Berlin says: "A column under command of General Kestranek advancing with the eastern army against General Dankel on Russian territory repulsed a violent attack of Russians and captured 600 of them. In the south Servians tried, near Mitrovika, to break into Croatian territory. About 5,000 Servians were taken prisoners of war and much war material captured."

GERMAN CAPTIVES NUMBER 6,000

London, Sept. 9.—There are at the present time about 6,000 German suspects and prisoners of war in the concentration camps of Great Britain. These camps are located at Aldershot, Newbury, Dorchester, Queensberry, Lancaster, Dyfrim Hall, which is near Chester; Edinburgh and Templemore, Ireland. They are being well treated.

CAN'T LAND "BUMS" IN MERRIE ENGLAND

London, Sept. 9.—The British government is adopting stringent regulations in order to keep out of England alien enemies, who heretofore have been permitted to land under the guise of Americans, whose citizenship was attested by consular certificates granted on the continent.

SOLVES FOREIGN EXCHANGE

Plan Outlined By the Federal Reserve Board.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The federal reserve board made public an outline of the plan evolved by the bankers' committee appointed at last Friday's conference of all the clearing house associations with the treasury department for meeting the foreign exchange problem.

The plan calls for a pool of $150,000,000 in gold to be contributed by the banks of the country, which shall be handled by a committee to be appointed by the New York clearing house association. Of this gold fund $25,000,000 is to be paid in immediately and deposited in the branch bank of the Bank of England in Canada. The remaining $125,000,000 shall be subject to call by the New York committee. This committee is to be charged with the duty of fixing the price at which foreign exchange shall be bought and sold.

Local committees subordinate to the New York committees are to be appointed by the clearing house association of the cities contributing to the gold fund and are to supervise the shipments and withdrawals of gold from their respective localities.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Teachers Win Fight.

Cleveland, Sept. 9.—The appellate court handed down a decision throwing out of court the school board's appeal from Common Pleas Judge Neff's injunction restraining members from discharging school teachers on account of their affiliation with the Teachers' Union and granted motion of attorneys representing the teachers that the motion to cite Superintendent of Schools Frederick for contempt of court be dismissed.

Hartman Theater

Week of September 14th.

William J. Burns, a former Columbus detective, has become one of the most widely known and most talked of men in the world today. His investigations in the past few years have been the means of bringing to justice many of the worst criminals in the country, and his methods of operation have been subjects of num-

eros newspaper articles and magazine stories. No hero of fiction was ever more popular than Mr. Burns, and he recently consented to appear before the moving picture machine in a play built upon one of his most famous cases, known in the history of the secret service as the "Philadelphia-Lancaster Counterfeiting Mystery," and the entire story is reproduced from beginning to end with all of its swift-moving drama and romance. In this picture, too, Mr. Burns reveals all the mechanical secrets by which the most ingenious band of counterfeiters in America endeavored to defraud the United States government of $5,000,000. He exposes the remarkable printing, the engraving, and the bill-splitting plants of the counterfeiters. Woven into this highly thrilling drama, is the exquisite romance of the daughter of one of the counterfeiters, who fell in love with a Burns' detective. Her renunciation of his love, and the final reconciliation when her father has broken down and confessed, gives a beautiful touch of sentiment to the gripping scenes. In this picture, too, Mr. Burns shows how the young woman detective, Florence Castle, was trapped by the counterfeiters and tortured until he finally rescued her from their den.

Some idea of the magnitude of Ecuador's cacao crop may be gained from the fact that the main streets of Guayaquil are at present almost wholly occupied by cacao beans, placed there to undergo the necessary curing process, and the wharves are covered to a height of several feet with the beans in bags ready for export. The enormous yield is the result of the increased acreage and greater number of trees planted in the last few years. So long as the cacao crop continues to be so bounteous the republic will occupy an independent financial position.—Argonaut.

Triplex Glass.

"Triplex" glass, consisting of two sheets of ordinary glass interlarded with a sheet of celluloid and amalgamated under heavy pressure may play an important part in automobile manufacture in the future. This glass will not fly about when shattered, but merely breaks up into adhering pieces, and hence will not cause injuries in case of accident.

Atomic Attraction.

Hydrogen and oxygen gases separately may be compressed to the liquid form, and then the compression further is exceedingly difficult. But in the chemical union of two atoms of hydrogen with one of oxygen to form a water molecule the immense force of atomic attraction, or chemistry, as one may prefer to name the force, is one of the most powerful in nature. It reduces huge volumes of the gases down to a far less volume, and the force is far greater than can be secured in any machine of screws, levers or hydraulic presses. Atomic attraction is perhaps the most powerful in nature. At least it is strong enough to hold atoms of steel and platinum together and diamonds.—New York American.

BADGES OF MOURNING.

Is the Custom of Wearing Black For the Dead Passing?

The notice of the death of an eminent man in London contained these words: "His wife and family will respect his urgent desire that no outward sign of mourning should be worn." In referring to this notice the London Times says, "The practice of wearing mourning has long been sliding into disuse, and probably the next twenty years will see it abandoned altogether, at any rate among the wealthier people."

According to the London paper, all badges of woe are disappearing from funerals. The black rosettes on the horses' bridles and the crape from the hats and sleeves are seldom seen. So it is with black edged writing paper and black edged cards. It is all going, because mourning is not needed either for memory or respect. Here are two paragraphs from the Times article. "Those whose sympathy we value will give it us without our advertising for it; it will seem all but indecent to go about the world demanding sympathy of strangers. "And if we believe that those who have left us have still the power to observe our doings we must believe that it is our hearts, not our clothes, that they will read."

All of which may seem a little unfeeling, and yet it is only to give an idea of the changes that are going on in the world of mourning.—Ohio State Journal.

SENSES OF PLANTS.

A Theory That Flowers See and Hear and May Even Talk.

Jean Vaud-Bruant, who is one of the most famous French horticulturists, has just published a little book on flowers, in which he advances the theory (I believe it is not entirely novel) that flowers both see and hear. As a young man, he says, he began to study flowers, for which he has always had a passion, and he sought to understand the habits of the bloom to which he cultivated. When he saw the growing plant reach out toward the necessary support he asked himself whether the action was the result of volition and whether the plant had eyes.

M. Vaud-Bruant is now apparently convinced that flowers both hear and see. There are some that are sensitive to anesthetic substances, ether in particular, which suggests the existence of a nervous system, like that of a nervous woman. And he would even credit them with something analogous to the power of speech.

"One knows," he writes, "that the perfume of flowers is a manifestation of vegetable life, a living radiation. Perfume is as much a vibration as an olfactory sensation. The perfume is the voice of the flower. A bouquet is a wordless romance. Each perfume or, rather, each odorous sensation corresponds with a certain rate of vibration. There is an analogy between the perceptions of sound, light and scent. The strong scent corresponds with the deep notes, while the delicate odors correspond with the shrill notes."—Paris Cor. Cincinnati Enquirer.

Atomic Attraction.

Hydrogen and oxygen gases separately may be compressed to the liquid form, and then the compression further is exceedingly difficult. But in the chemical union of two atoms of hydrogen with one of oxygen to form a water molecule the immense force of atomic attraction, or chemistry, as one may prefer to name the force, is one of the most powerful in nature. It reduces huge volumes of the gases down to a far less volume, and the force is far greater than can be secured in any machine of screws, levers or hydraulic presses. Atomic attraction is perhaps the most powerful in nature. At least it is strong enough to hold atoms of steel and platinum together and diamonds.—New York American.

FIGHTING OUT TAX PROBLEM

By Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 9.—President Wilson opposes an increase in the income tax as part of the program for raising additional revenue for the government. House Leader Underwood, Chairman Simmons, of the Senate Finance committee, and Chairman Fitzgerald, of the House Appropriations committee, conferred with the President today and were told that in his opinion an increased income tax would not be suitable in the emergency because no returns would be realized until next year. In his message to Congress on the subject the President asks that sources of revenue be selected which would respond quickly.

BULLETINS

By Associated Press.

Tokio, Sept. 9.—The Japanese Diet today adopted the war program of the Japanese government. It provides for a war appropriation of about $26,500,000. The vote was unanimous.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The German Embassy received a wireless today from Berlin saying: "General headquarters reports that Maubeuge has fallen, 400 guns, four generals and 40,000 prisoners captured."

Berlin, Sept. 9.—Two more major generals have been added to the death list of field officers, Generals von Gotta and Nieland. Premier von Weizsacker, of Wurtemberg, and the Finance Minister, Von Breunig, of Bavaria, have both lost sons. Prince Frederick William of Hesse, was wounded in the breast in the fighting in France.

Long trainloads of wounded are now being brought to hospitals or forwarded to the interior of Germany.

YANKS HELD FOR SPYING

By Associated Press.

London, Sept. 9.—Several alleged Americans are among the refugees already placed in compounds by the secret service men. The cases of many others are under investigation. While none of the arrested have been shown so far to be a spy, many are declared to be unquestionably alien enemies of undesirable type. A large number hold supposed credentials that have been proven false. Several holding American passports are unable to speak English.

FIRST VETERAN REACHES THE U.S.

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 9.—The first veteran of the present European war to reach the United States, arrived in New York today aboard the steamer Lapland. He was Alois Von Neuwonhausen, of Gibson City, Ill., a Belgian who was returning home, wounded in one of the battles before Liege.

He went to Belgium about six months ago to buy horses for an Illinois horse breeder. He was drafted into the army and served in several of the battles. Before Liege a German bullet passed through his right hip. After this he was able to get his release.

BRING ENGLISH OUT OF CHINA

By Associated Press.

Shanghai, China, Sept. 9.—Reports received here today from Hong Kong say that the British Cornwall and Gloucestershire regiments have been ordered to Marseilles. The troops will leave Hong Kong September 14, using the Pacific Mail Line steamer, Nile, as a transport. The Nile will be conveyed by a British cruiser.

IN PACT TO STAY

By Associated Press.

Tokio, Japan, Sept. 9.—The Japanese government announced today that Great Britain had informed France and Russians that the recent convention signed by the powers of the triple entente, in which it was agreed that none of the three would accept terms of peace without the previous consent of the other two, must not be regarded as modifying the British alliance with Japan with whom Great Britain acts in common in the conduct of the war or in the making of peace.

ALLEMANG REUNION

The first reunion of the Allemang family was celebrated on the Harper farm at Manara, O., the home of Mr. George Allemang, on Monday.

It proved an affair of so much pleasure and fraternal interest that future reunions will be anticipated events of each season. A sumptuous picnic dinner contributed no little to the delightful sociability of the day.

An organization was effected with the following officers elected: President, C. E. Allemang, Manara, O.; vice-president, Mrs. N. O. Jester, Columbus, O.; treasurer and secretary, Mrs. B. H. Little, Cedarville, O.

Participating in the reunion were: C. E. Allemang and family, George Allemang and family, Manara, O.; Chas. Allemang and family, Miss P. A. Harper, Washington, C. H. O.; A. J. # FUNERAL OF LAD WHO SHOT SELF

The funeral services of little Harold Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Snyder, of Mt. Sterling, were held Wednesday afternoon, and a number of persons from this city attended the services.

The lad, who was playing with a pistol at the home of his parents, and was almost instantly killed when the pistol was discharged, lived only a few minutes after the accident.

Following the funeral services the remains were interred in the Mt. Sterling cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Clay Johnson, of Dayton, and Mr. E. J. Light and Miss Minnie Light attended the services.

I. O. O. F. PARTY REACHES TOLEDO

Word from the I. O. O. F. party states that they reached Toledo from Buffalo, Wednesday morning, after a very delightful trip, which even the roll and pitch of the vessel failed to mar.

At Buffalo and Niagara Falls the party enjoyed a pleasant two days' stay, and most of them crossed into Canada while at the Falls.

After conferring the first degree upon a class of 100 candidates at Toledo, tonight, the party will board a special train for this city, and will arrive sometime tomorrow morning.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGINS THIS EVENING

A large class of candidates is expected out this evening when the High School football material will be put through the first preliminary workout of the season.

The team this year will be made up largely of new men as most of the old timers graduated this spring, but the material looks promising and willing and Coach Schlachach believes that he will be able to hammer out a pretty stiff eleven. It is expected that about twenty will report this evening.

THURSDAY LAST DAY FOR SWIMMING

Thursday will mark the close of the woman's Swimming classes, which have been held semi-weekly at the Y. M. C. A. outdoor tank, during the summer, under the direction of Physical Director J. W. McClung of the Y. M. C. A.

The classes have been popular and many young ladies have become proficient in the aquatic art during their continuance. That they will be resumed next year is the hearty expectation of all who have benefited.

ANOTHER PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE

That the amateur sleuth who recently filed a handful of affidavits against some of the bootlegging gentry in this city, did his work thoroughly, is testified by the number of the accused who have entered pleas of guilty and paid fines.

The last to plead guilty and receive a fine of $200 and the costs was Chas. Bryant. $125 of the amount was suspended pending good behavior, and the remaining $75 and the costs was paid.

Joe Barker, who has not yet appeared for trial, is said to be too ill at the present time, and will appear later.

The remains of Harry Ewick, the young man who was electrocuted at Leesburg while connecting high voltage wires Monday evening, have been removed to Peebles for interment. His brother, Jess, employed by the Washington Home Telephone company, is in Peebles to attend the funeral. The young man is said to have possessed sterling qualities, and comes from one of Peebles best known families.

PLAYS WILLIAM TELL DESTROYS ONE EYE

A little girl by the name of Dillard, residing a few miles north of Cooks Station, lost the sight of her right eye one day this week, while playing with the seven-year-old son of George A. Hott.

The little lad was playing William Tell, and instead of hitting the apple, the arrow struck the little girl in the eye and destroyed the sight.

SUFFERING FROM FRACTURED HIP

Mrs. Henry Shough, aged 84 years, of Sedalia, is now in the Grant hospital at Columbus, suffering from a badly fractured right hip. Her condition is said to be critical.

Mrs. Shough was at her home in Sedalia when the accident occurred, and her advanced age is very much against her recovery.

Square Heels For Shoes.

The square heel, which has been recently patented by a shoe designer of Washington state, is an effort to increase the life of the heel and the comfort of the wearer by preventing the running over, which is a common fault of the present time. The runner always occurs to the rear of the heel, and this is prevented to a great degree by the increased amount of material in the new shape. The operation of running over is greatly retarded and the heel is given more foundation when the foot is planted on the ground.—Exchange.

Plating Aluminum.

A French metallurgist has solved the problem of giving aluminum a coating that will take a high polish and will safeguard it against the effects of the air and of certain foods. By successive baths of boiling lye, cyanide of potassium and hydrochloric acid containing ferrous chloride he produces a surface that takes a plating of nickel so perfectly that the metal can be rolled into plates, drawn into wires or hammered into any shape without in any way injuring the film of nickel.—New York World is just off the press. It carries 100,000 facts about Ohio—facts about business, agriculture, education, politics, your City, County and State; facts about everything you want to know about Ohio.

It is a Handbook that will interest and instruct every man and woman in the Buckeye State.

It has been compiled for us by experts. It is concise, comprehensive, thoroughly reliable. We are proud of this Handbook of ours. Its 300 pages are jammed full of authentic information—authentic because it was compiled by those who know. The work was under the direct supervision of O. K. Shimansky, editor and writer.

Among those who assisted in the compilation were Prof. C. B. Galbreath, secretary Fourth Constitutional Convention and former State Librarian; E. Frank Brown, fiscal supervisor, State Board of Administration; Miss Lucy J. Price, editor and lecturer; Judge R. M. Dittey, tax expert and former chairman Tax Commission of Ohio; Karl K. Shimansky, newspaper writer.

Agricultural statistics	Farm statistics	Postoffice guide
Altitudes	Floods of 1913	Public debt
Amendments to Constitution	Game laws	Railroad guide
Canals	Governors	Rainfall
Census statistics	Industrial statistics	Referendum votes
Churches	Interurban railroads	Rural population
City populations	Laws, liquor, tax, game, etc.	Saloon law and statistics
Climate	Legal holidays	School attendance
Colleges	Manufacturing statistics	State officers, salaries
Compensation law	Marriage statistics	Statistics, about everything
Constitutional amendments	Mayors	Tax laws and statistics
County statistics and officials	Military history	Telephone directory
Crops	Mounds and builders	Vote, all state officers and
Directory of all towns	Party platforms and candidates	stitutional amendments
Divorce statistics	Population, state, county, city
Election statistics	Postal rules

The 1914 Ohio Almanac sells regularly for 50 cents a copy. You can secure a copy at this office for 25 cents, or prepaid by mail, for 30 cents.

There's no red tape to this offer—no coupons, no liability on your part, nothing to do but pay the money and get the book.

If you don't think it the best thing of its kind—if you are not satisfied with the Ohio Almanac, you can get your money back.

CZAR VOWS TO PENETRATE TO BERLIN IF IT COSTS HIM HIS LAST GENERAL

Germans Forced to Withdraw From Upper Alsace—Russians Win Great Battle in Galicia, and Austrians are Retiring In Disorder, Leaving Thousands on Field—“Unknown Factor” Has Reached France and Begins Its Deadly Work—French Fort Falls.

London, Sept. 9.—From what can be gathered from the fleeting glimpses of the battle zone, permitted by the censorship, the British and French armies seem to be effectively driving home their advantage and gaining impetus as they progress. British optimism, which became more pronounced with the first announcement of the “turn of the tide,” has been further heartened by the continuation of promising reports from the front. For the first time since the beginning of hostilities an official British representative has described the result of the operations as “very satisfactory.” Observers in London claim that if the allied attack on the German center and to the left of the center, whose battle is raging so stubbornly with alternate advances and retirements, is successful, a wedge will be driven between the German right and left which will place the enemy's right in a highly dangerous plight.

Lord Kitchener's “unknown factor”, heretofore held to be a great secret which has so altered the situation at the front, is now known to be the arrival of forces from India. Two divisions of infantry and a brigade of cavalry constitute these forces. A dozen Indian potentates have been selected to accompany this expeditionary force.

London, Sept. 9.—The Evening News has published a dispatch from its Rome correspondent who says that Emperor Nicholas is reported in Rome to have made the following declaration:

Berlin, Sept. 9, via wireless to the Associated Press via Sayville, L. I.—Official announcement was made today at army headquarters that the French fortress of Maubeuge, on the Sambre river had fallen.

The Germans took 40,000 prisoners including four generals. 400 guns also were captured.

London, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Central News from Basel, Switzerland, by way of Rome, says that the Germans have evacuated Upper Alsace.

Paris, Sept. 9.—British officers and soldiers arriving from the front today declare that the four days' battle which still continues to the east of Paris is being carried on furiously. They assert that the French captured a considerable number of field and machine guns, while the Germans often surrendered in groups.

Field Marshal Sir John French, the commander-in-chief of the British expeditionary force now fighting with the French army, looked perfectly satisfied with the situation according to the British soldiers. They say he went about the lines smoking a cigarette as though he was on the parade grounds.

ALLIES CROWD THE GERMANS

Paris, Sept. 9.—An official communication issued this afternoon, says the situation remains satisfactory. The German right is retreating before the English. The French center is slowly advancing. The situation in the French right is unchanged.

DEANS' YARD A MILITARY CAMP

The famous Deans' yard of Westminster-abbey utilized as a camp for the troops arriving in London on their way to the continent.

FRENCH REPORT ENEMY RETREATING

Washington, Sept. 9.—A Bordeaux dispatch to the French Embassy says: “On the seventh the French and English offensive had compelled the Germans to withdraw. Two of its army corps have been thrown on the left side of the Ourcq.”

The Embassy received another message saying: “The Spanish Ambassador in Berlin strongly denies rumors of Spain's unfriendly attitude against Germany and Austria, all Spanish party leaders being for strict neutrality. All the papers speak of the importance of the capture of Maubeuge.”

“At Strausburg, after a court martial session, the official statement was made: ‘The French authorities, two months before mobilization, organized French “sniping bands” by distributing arms to civilians.’”

JAPS LAND 20,000 TROOPERS

Peking, China, Sept. 9.—A telegram from German sources states that the Japanese landed 20,000 men at Lung-Kow, a town on the northern coast of the Shan Tung peninsula and that they are now advancing toward Chao-Yua, a town about 80 miles north of Kiao-Chow.

The Japanese censorship is complete. Even Chinese officials in the territory occupied by the Japanese are prevented from communicating freely with Peking while telegraphic communication with Tsing-Tau has been interrupted for a week.

Mail advices from Tsing-Tau, dated September 3, says that the report that the Germans are compelling Chinese laborers to assist in the construction of defenses is untrue. The Chinese, who deserted Tsing-Tau, expecting a bombardment of the city by the Japanese but finding a livelihood outside the district of Kaio Chow impossible, were returned in great numbers.

RUSSIANS CLAIM ANOTHER VICTORY

Rome, Sept. 9.—A dispatch from Petrograd to the Messagero declares that the great battle at Rawa, in Galicia, 32 miles northwest of Lemberg, is over and that the Russians have won a complete victory.

The Austrians are said to be retiring everywhere. Among the prisoners taken by the Russians are a large number of Germans. The Austrians have evacuated Russian-Poland.

KAISER LODGES KICK WITH WILSON

London, Sept. 9.—“There has been published in Copenhagen a telegram which Emperor William sent to President Wilson under date of September 4 telegraphs the Copenhagen correspondent of the London Daily Telegram. “In this message Emperor William protests against the use by the English of dum dum bullets and against the participation of the Belgian population in the war.”

“Emp. William adds in communication to Mr. Wilson that his generals have, in certain cases, been compelled to punish the Belgians and he expresses his deep regret at the destruction of Louvain, and other interesting places.”

AUSTRIANS SHRINK FROM RUSSIANS

Washington, Sept. 9.—The Russian Embassy here today issued the following statement: “On September 8, a general engagement continued along the whole of the Austrian frontier. In the center the Austrian army is falling back. Near Rava-Russka a stubborn battle is being fought with considerable Austrian forces. Our troops are also attacking a strongly fortified position at Gorodok, west of Lwow (Polish for Lemberg). On the left bank of the Vistula river our advance is developing very favorably.”

GERMAN FLAG TAKEN IN BATTLE

Paris, Sept. 9.—“On the banks of the river Ourcq, two German flags have been captured in the course of a great battle. One was taken from the enemy by force by a reservist named Gullmard, who has received the military medal from General Gallieni, commander of the French forces at Paris. This flag is of the 36th regiment of German infantry which was decorated in 1870 with the order of the Iron Cross.” The foregoing is an official announcement given out in Paris this afternoon.

FRENCH PEOPLE TAKING HEART

Paris, Sept. 9.—Today's official communication, indicating that the allied armies are holding Germans east of Paris and the retirement of the Germans before the British offensive movement was received with the greatest satisfaction by the French public. Between the lines of the official announcement can be read the fact that fighting of the fiercest kind is in progress and that the battle lines cover a wide territory.

SERVIANS MAKE OFFENSIVE MOVES

Paris, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Nish, Serbia, says that the Servians are continuing their offensive movement against the Austrians in the direction of Vishegrad. They crossed the frontier September 6 and continued to advance successfully. Everywhere the Austrians were thrown back to the left bank of the River Drina.

RUSSIAN OFFICERS AND MEN TAKEN

Washington, September 9.—Seventeen officers and 1,000 men of the Russian Imperial Guard were captured at Breslau by the Filesian Landwehr, according to a wireless today from Berlin to the Germany Embassy.

MONTENEGRINS PLAYING PART

Paris, Sept. 9.—A Havas Agency dispatch from Rome says: “News has reached here that the Montenegrin troops commanded by General Vucotich have occupied important points in Bosnia south of Sarajevo, the capital. The situation in North Albania continues serious.”

German Right Wing Turned Near
the Capital to Rejoin the Other Armies from Belgium, the Valley of the Meuse and Luxembourg—Would Bottle Up French Right, Then Assault Paris—French War Office Reports Progress.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The official communique confirms the report that the German right wing, after energetically
marching on Paris, has turned to rejoin the other armies of the enemy
from Belgium, the valley of the Meuse and Luxembourg.

All the forces are engaged in a general battle with the allied army on
an immense front from Nanteuil,
twenty-five miles northeast of Paris,
to Verdun, the struggle continuing further east in Lorraine and to the Vosges. The fact that the allies' left
has driven back the German right
during the past two days without the
enemy energetically opposing, show
clearly that the Germans are trying

to strike at the allied army now at Paris, thus conforming to the elementary rules of war.

It has occasioned surprise that General Von Kluck's forces could
have been pushed so energetically
toward Paris and then turned to the southeast at the very moment when
an attack by its more advanced force
ought to have been made. The real explanation probably is the desire to hold part of the French army in the
hazardous positions necessary to cover the capital. The French forces
now form a line in the north of which there remains no army which the Germans can cut off. The German
right is approaching the other German armies trying to break through
the French lines by a frontal movement. If successful they will be able to return to Paris and attack it. Several days must pass before the results are known.

30,000 Germans Captured.

The Germans are in a hostile country and at distances relatively great
from their homes bases. The invaders
today are probably at their greatest strength, while the defenders of France, especially the British contin-
gents, are being augmented steadily.

Accounts of wounded soldiers who
reached Paris indicate that the result
of the three days' fighting in the Champagne country has been more favorable for the allies than at first
supposed.

They say the German losses in killed
were enormous and that a great number of prisoners were taken.
French officers estimate the prisoners
at 30,000. The Champagne district includes parts of the departments of Marne, Ardennes, Aube and Haute-
Marne.

The Germans are reported in Paris
unofficially to have asked for an armistice to bury their dead and care for their wounded. It is understood that the allies refused the request.

The fighting on the long line to the east of Paris probably will last for a number of days. No quick and decisive outcome is expected.

The results of the encounters of the
past two days are regarded as distinctly favorable to the allies and
there is an atmosphere of cheerfulness
at the French war office.

A Russian army said to number
250,000 men is in France.

War Office's Report.

The French war office issued the
following:

"On our left wing the allied armies,
comprising the elements of the far
outlying defense of Paris, continue to advance from the banks of the Ourcq
river up to the country around Montmirail. The enemy is retreating toward the Marne river between Meaux
and Sezanne. French and English troops took a large number of prisoners, notably a battalion of infantry
and a company of mitrailleuses and
several caissons.

"On our right, a German division
attacked us along a line passing
through Chateau-Salines and Nancy,
but it was repulsed north of the forest of Champenoux. Elsewhere, farther to the east, our troops retook the
crest of Mandray and the pass of Fourneau. There is no change in

PRINCIPAL POINTS IN PRIESTLY CAREER OF NEW POPE, BENEDICT XV., WHOSE ELECTION CAME AS A SURPRISE

Benedict XV., the new pope, is in his sixtieth year and was the youngest of the five cardinals named last May. His election to the holy see created as much surprise as did the election of Cardinal Sarto, the late Pope Pius X. He was little known among American Catholic clergy. Giacomo della Chiesa was born at Pegli, Italy, on November 21, 1854. He became a priest on Dec. 21, 1878. For years he was the religious intimate of the late Cardinal Rampolla. He accompanied the latter to Madrid in 1883 and remained as secretary of the nunciature until 1887. During that time he was made a monsignor. He returned to Rome with Cardinal Rampolla, who was made secretary of state, and took a minor office under him. In 1901 he was made substitute of the secretariate and secretary of the cipher. He was made archbishop of Bologna on Dec. 16, 1907. Now, after less than seven years there, he has been elected to the sacred college and to the holy see, the highest office in the Roman Catholic church. His election will mean many changes in the Vatican household. Chiesa means "of the church", so that his name actually fits his present exalted office.

ALLIES NOW AGGRESSORS

London, Sept. 9.—The military expert of the Times writes:

"The French have very promptly
seized the correct moment for an offensive return and according to the latest news have opened a general
attack on the German army on a front extending between Verdun and Paris. It is supposed that the whole forces of the allies are in line with the exception of the troops which are holding back the army of the crown
prince of Bavaria in Lorraine.

"The Germans came as far south
of the Marne as Comommiers before
they were attacked. They have already been driven back. They are outflanked on their right and the battle is engaged under good conditions
for the success of the allies' cause.
The existence of two great fortresses
of Paris and Verdun in line, gives
much support to the progress of the allies. This battle will be watched
everywhere with the deepest interest.
three of its forts have been destroyed. Antwerp has not yet been seriously attacked.

"Longwy, with its antiquated works,
has made a great fight and has enabled Colonel Darche to cover himself with glory."

New York, Sept. 9.—In a decision
denying a motion for a temporary injunction restraining the proposed merger of the New York Central and
the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railway lines, Judge Grubb in the United States district court suggested
that a Sherman law suit would be the best way of determining the legality
or illegality of the merger.

tleship Glory arrived in port conveying the Spanish steamship Montser-
rat, seized on the high seas with 150
Montserat left New Orleans nearly
a month ago.

GEN. SMITH-DORRIEN HEADS SECOND CORPS OF BRITISH IN FRANCE.

General Horace Smith-Dorrien has
just been appointed to command the Second army corps of the British expeditionary force in place of the late
General Grierson, who died suddenly.
General Smith-Dorrien was commander in chief at Aldershot from 1907-12. Each army corps is composed of two divisions organized into twenty-
four infantry battalions, six cavalry
regiments, eight batteries of horse
artillery of six guns each, eighteen
batteries of field artillery of six guns
each, two howitzer batteries of four guns apiece and troops of the engineer corps, signal corps, army service corps and other details. The
general makeup of the expeditionary
force is therefore approximately 72
infantry battalions, 18 cavalry regiments, 24 batteries of field artillery
with 144 guns, 54 batteries of field
artillery with 324 guns and 6 howitzer batteries with 24 guns. The
First corps is commanded by Lieutenant General Sir Douglas Haig and
the Third by Major General W. P.
Pulteney.

SENATOR REED STIRS SENATE

Washington, Sept. 9.—The final disposition by the senate of the conference report on the federal trade bill,
which was agreed to by a vote of 43
to 5, was attended with some sensational incidents.

Senator Reed of Missouri alleged
that Representative Stephen of New Hampshire and George Rublee, an attorney of New York, had been "lobbied" to secure legislation on the subject of unfair trade practices and
when challenged as to why he had
not brought the matter to the attention of the lobby committee of the senate, of which Mr. Reed is a member, that senator replied that he had spoken to Senator Overman, chairman of the lobby committee on the
subject. Mr. Reed characterized Rub-
lee as a "most persistent" lobbyist.

Chairman Newlands referred to Rublee as a man who is doing a disinterested, patriotic service without
any compensation.

It is said that Rublee is a man of
independent means.

One Week of September.

September is but little more than one week old but the people of this section have enjoyed, in that time, a wealth of beautiful weather. It's fine to be out of doors these hazy fall days with the bright warm sunlight beaming down from a sky of deep blue. Even at noonday the rays of the sun are not uncomfortably warm and in the dusk of evening with the atmosphere cool and bracing enough to make the wearing of light coats comfortable the human beings who are able to get away from the grind of business long enough to be out in God's big out of doors for one entire long September day, from early morning until late in the evening, are indeed fortunate.

The weather this fall promises to be, from the sample which nature has furnished us this first week in September, ideal. The rains have come and the grass and trees and all forms of vegetation have freshened up. New life has been injected into the trees, the leaves have taken a firmer hold on the branches and they promise to remain on the trees until the early frosts tint the woods with a multitude of colors.

Frequently the foliage is so withered by the prolonged droughts of late summer and early fall, that our eccentric friend, Jack Frost, finds nothing to mix his colors on when he arrives to paint the landscape with his reds and golds and browns.

This year he will find a wealth of leaves green and firm and full of life and the fantastic combinations of colors which he will spread over the wooded hill sides will be a joy to see.

One of the greatest pleasures of life in the great out of doors is to go down into the hill country during the ideal fall weather, climb to the top of one of the rugged old piles of earth and rock, look down into the valleys and across the fertile valley to the range of hills beyond, and yet farther into other valleys to other ranges of hills until outline is lost to sight until the multitude of colors is blended into one and hill and valley, wildwood and cultivated field are enchanting blue haze.

One can stand at the top of one of the grand old hills of Ross county and gaze at the wonders of nature and the beauty of it all and never grow tired.

When the gathering darkness obscures the view of the valleys beneath one regrets that nature's great panorama of the world can no longer be seen. That regret abides until the odor of boiling coffee and frying potatoes, coming from the cottage in the hollow reminds one that he has an appetite that demands attention and dispelling the thoughts of what was, increase the rapidity with which the steps which lead back home, are taken.

It's good to live, of course, any time, but it seems doubly good to be alive and well and able to be out during the glorious days of September and October.

No man can see nature preparing for winter without feeling on better terms with himself and with all the world besides.

The best place to lose a grouch is to take a trip in the country, climb a big hill and see how big, how beautiful, how peaceful and serene our mother nature is, and realize how small man is and how light our burden is compared with hers, how beautifully she does her work and how pleasant it is to see the results of her quiet work.

Single Abatement of War's Horror Is That It Can't Last Long

By Colonel HENRY WATTERSON, Editor Louisville Courier-Journal

BELIEVE THE TIME HAS COME FOR KINGS TO TAKE STOCK, AS IT WERE, AND FOR KINGCRAFT TO COME TO A SHOWDOWN. WHEN THE BATTLE CLOUDS LIFT AND THE EARTH HAS RECEIVED THE SLAIN WE SHALL BEHOLD ANOTHER EUROPE. LET US LIVE AND HOPE. BUT WE SHALL HAVE TO WAIT AND SEE.

The kaiser is held justly accountable for the bloody work that is going forward. THE OLD MAN IN VIENNA AND THE RULER IN ST. PETERSBURG COULD EACH HAVE BEEN HELD TO HIS PLACE EXCEPT FOR THE WAR LORD OF BERLIN. If he could win we should behold the rise of a power in the heart of Europe quite equal to that contemplated by the first Napoleon. That is not to be thought of or endured. The world can settle with autocracy in the Russian empire when it has vanquished autocracy in the German empire.

THE WORLD HAS A LONG WAY TO TRAVEL BEFORE IT REACHES THE MOUNT OF OLIVES. WE BUILD A HOUSE OF CARDS IN THE LOW COUNTRY. COMES A WIND ACROSS THE NORTH SEA TO BLOW IT DOWN; COMES A BLAST FROM THE HELL THE HAPSBURG MADE AND NOT A STONE REMAINS. TRULY THE HOME OF TRAGEDY! WAS IT NOT ENOUGH THAT SELF SLAUGHTER AND THE ASSASSIN HAD DONE TO WORK THE DEVIL'S WILL ON THE DANUBE THAT AN OLD MAN SHOULD BE LEFT TO END THE DRAMA WITH A CONFLAGRATION SWEEPING ACROSS THE RHINE TO THE RHONE AND THE SEINE, TO THE SEVERN AND THE CLYDE? WHAT IS SERVIA TO ENGLAND, WHAT TO FRANCE, THAT THEY SHOULD BLEED FOR HER? AND AFTER ALL IS OVER HOW SHALL THE BALANCE OF POWER STAND?

It is but a gamble—a gamble in the lives of men, the hearts of women and children. "It will be the bloodiest of wars," says General Nelson A. Miles, a commanding authority, "and the last." That is to say, it will be so destructive that there can never be another. The single abatement of horror is that it cannot be of long duration.

Poetry For Today

FOR ALL WE HAVE AND ARE.

I.
For all we have and are,
For all our children's fate,
Stand up and meet the war!
The Hun is at the gate.
Our world has passed away.
In wantonness o'erthrown.
There's nothing left today
But steel and fire and stone.
Though all we knew depart,
The old commandments stand:
"In courage keep your heart!

II.
Once more we hear the word
That sickened earth of old:
"No law except the sword,
Unsheathed and uncontrolled!"
Once more it knits mankind;
Once more the nations go
To meet and break and bind
A crazed and driven foe.

III.
Comfort, content, delight—
The ages' slow bought gain—
They shriveled in a night.
Only ourselves remain
To face the naked days
In silent fortitude,
Through perils and dismays
Renewed and re-renewed,
Though all we made depart,
The old commandments stand:
"In patience keep your heart!

IV.
No easy hopes or lies
Shall bring us to our goal,
But iron sacrifice
Of body, will and soul.
There's but one task for all—
For each one life to give,
Who stands if freedom fall?
Who dies if England live?
—Rudyard Kipling.

EUROPEAN ALLIANCES.

The Many Changes That Have Come In the Last Century.

In the history of Europe during the past century nothing is more curious than the easy way in which national alliances have been made, broken, made again and changed as dynastic, economic and racial reasons have demanded. Here are a few of these political transformations:

In 1815 Russia, Prussia, England and Austria combined against France and crushed the power of Napoleon forever. In 1849, when revolution in Hungary threatened the house of Hapsburg in Austria, Russia intervened and by force of arms placed the present emperor, Francis Joseph, firmly upon his throne.

In 1855-6 England, France, Austria and Italy allied themselves with the Turks against Russia in the Crimean war.

In 1859 France defeated Austria in Italy and gave a great impetus to the unification of Italy.

In 1866 Prussia gave its present ally, Austria, a fearful beating at Sadowa and forced it out of first place in the German confederation.

In 1870 Prussia inflicted upon France the defeat, with accompanying loss of territory, that has been the cause of Europe's unrest ever since.

In 1877 Russia defeated the Turks decisively, but was cheated out of the rightful fruits of her victory by a combination of the other powers in the treaty of Berlin.

Old enmities and friendships are now forgotten, and Italy, which detests both Austria and Germany, has been united with them in the triple alliance, while those old time enemies, England and Russia, are allied with France in the triple entente.

What will be the next switch?—Philadelphia Record.

Leave It In the Inkstand.

When one is tempted to write a clever but harsh thing, though it may be difficult to restrain it, it is always better to leave it in the inkstand.

SHOOTING A DEER.

The Tropical Poisoned Arrow Sent Him to Sleep and Death.

Hunting with poison, as practiced by the natives of Brazil and other tropical American countries, is thus described in a communication to the National Geographic society, at Washington, by Dewey Austin Cobb:

"In hunting, the arrows, which are dipped in poison, consist of a point of wood or bone, not more than an inch long and the size of a toothpick, to which is attached a little tuft or hairy fiber of the silk cotton tree. The gun is a straight bamboo tube from five to six feet long, with a sight at one end and a funnel shaped expansion to fit the mouth at the other. The principle is precisely the same as the schoolboy's tube for blowing putty balls, and the accuracy of the natives is wonderful."

Mr. Cobb gives the following description of the shooting of a deer:

"A good sized buck walked out of the corn and stopped, exposing to us its full broadside as we lay some thirty feet away. Our hunter fired. The animal gave a slight start as he felt the prick of the arrow on his flank and turned partly around, sniffing the air for a scent and looking around as if searching for the insect that had bitten him. Detecting nothing, he stood still and unalarmed. At the end of a minute or so his head dropped a little, as if he was sleepy. The hunter stepped out in plain sight. The deer looked at him and moved forward, not away from him, a few steps and stopped. He showed no fear, but simply curiosity."

"My companion and I rose, and the three of us walked quietly within reach of him. He made no movement to run away, but watched us intently and shifted his position a little. His movements seemed perfectly easy and natural. Absence of fear seemed the only observable change until at the end of three minutes or more; then he lay down, not falling, but as naturally as a cow or sheep when ready for sleep. His breathing seemed easy and natural. At the end of ten minutes, though he opened his eyes when touched, his breath became shorter and slower. Eighteen minutes after he was struck by the arrow he was dead."

ACOUSTIC CLOUDS.

Why Church Bells Sound Louder on Some Days Than on Others.

Every one has noticed that on certain days church bells are heard much better than on others and sometimes are not heard at all on other days. The same distance intervenes between the church and the person's residence, the same intensity is used to strike the bell, the same visible obstacles are between the two at one time as at another.

Then why does the intensity of the peal vary? It has been found that there are what is known as "acoustic clouds" in the air. They cannot be seen, but they may be detected artificially. They have the property of reflecting sound just as a brick wall has. So if a thick one of these so called "clouds" intervenes between the church bell and the observer most of the sound is reflected back to the bell, and very little gets through. The acoustic clouds consist simply of a large quantity of water vapor in the air, and water vapor itself is invisible. So we are able to see through something that we cannot hear through. Generally, of course, it is the other way round. We can hear through a piece of black paper, but we cannot see through it.

Now, if these acoustic clouds are disposed in a certain manner it is possible that they will reflect the sound into a region where the bell's tone is ordinarily not heard at all save when the clouds are present and disposed in the proper manner.—Chicago Herald.

Still Observe Druid Festival.

The old midsummer fire festival of druidical origin is still celebrated on the continent, but there is probably only one spot in Great Britain where it is still observed, and that is Farbolton, in Ayrshire. For days before the festival the village lads collect materials for the great bonfire. The fuel is built upon an altar of turf, and a match is applied at sunset, after which the folk solemnly march around the blaze, and the daring youngsters vie with one another in dashing through the flames.—London Tit-Bits.

Dangerous Occupation.

"Does my practicing make you nervous?" asked the man who is learning to play the cornet.

"It did when I first heard the neighbors discussing it," replied the sympathetic person. "But now I'm getting so I don't care what happens to you."—Washington Star.

Preparing For the Fray.

"I'm going to make a speech that will make my friends sit up."
"You're on the wrong track," replied the experienced campaigner. "See if you can't make one that will cause the other fellows to lie down."—Washington Star.

Nail Holes In Wood.

Old nail holes in wood may be filled up by mixing sawdust with glue till it is the consistency of stiff paste. Press this compound into the holes, and it will become as hard as the wood itself.

Early Impressions.

Early impressions are not easily erased. The virgin wax is faithful to the signet, and subsequent impressions seem rather to indent the former ones than to eradicate them.

Self respect is, next to religion, the chiefest bribe of all vices.

RATS LIKE TO GNAW TUSKS.

And Thus the Rodents Are a Help to the Ivory Workers.

There is a curious but little known fact that well illustrates the ravages that rats can inflict on the hardest substances with their sharp little teeth. Many of the elephants' tusks imported into London for the use of ivory ornament makers have their surfaces grooved into small furrows of unequal depth, as if cut by a very sharp edged instrument. Surely no man can have taken the trouble to do that, for what would be the profit of his labor?

The rats are at the bottom of the mischief. They have found out the tusks that contain the most gelatin or animal glue, a sweet and delicious morsel for the rat's dainty palate, and having gnawed away as much as suited their purpose, have left the rest for the ivory cutter. He, for his part, is able and willing to profit by the fact that the rats have made clear.

The ivory that contains a large amount of gelatin is softer and more elastic than that which does not, and as elasticity is the thing most needed for billiard balls the ivory worker chooses this rat marked ivory and turns it into beautiful, elastic billiard balls. The elasticity of some of the balls is so great that if thrown down forcibly on a hard pavement they will rebound into the hand to the height of three or four feet.—Exchange.

WHERE RAIN IS A NOVELTY.

Think of Having a Shower Only Once In Twenty-four Years!

The Chilean provinces of Atacama, Tarapaca and Tacna are in the rainless region, or desert country west of the Andes, and are entirely devoid of vegetation. The winds in all of this region are from the east and in passing over the elevated perpetual snows of the Andes are stripped of their moisture and arrive on the coast perfectly dry.

The last rain, a slight shower which fell in Antofagasta, in Atacama province, was the first rain which had fallen in sixteen years. The last rain which fell in Iquique, in Tarapaca province, was the first in twenty-four years. With both of these showers a notable phenomenon occurred. The bare hills back of these cities assumed a green tint from a little plant which sprang up almost in a night. The query is, "From where did this plant come?"

The whole of the coast presents a most dismal and discouraging appearance from the sea, but the climate is healthy, being especially adapted to pulmonary and throat troubles from its extreme dryness and freedom from germs. The heat is modified by a local sea breeze, and the sea bathing is most invigorating, as the water is cold.

No Tip For Him.

Tipping is at least an ancient custom. In the eighteenth century an Italian visitor to England remarked that "it is polite to dine with the nobility, where you pay the servants for ten times as much as you eat." And an Irish peer replied to the Duke of Ormonde's invitation to dine: "If your grace will give me a guinea to pay your servants, I will. I am too poor, else!" An American actor who once took an English house for the summer had a schedule of the tips his servants expected printed for the guidance of his American friends and put them on the bedroom mantelpieces. He had taken a particular dislike to a very British side whiskered butler he had taken over with the house, and the list, after enumerating the sums to be paid to the chauffeur, the housemaid, and so on, finished with, "The guy with the black whiskers you will meet in the front hall—not a cent."—Argonaut.

DEEP INTEREST TAKEN IN ANNUAL W. C. T. U. MEETING

DELEGATES FROM ALL OVER COUNTY ATTEND

New Departmental Superintendents Named—Resolutions to be Forwarded to Congressmen—1915 Convention to be Held in This City.

The impetus of the morning session of the County Convention, W. C. T. U., held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday, was felt in the afternoon session, which rounded out one of the most notable gatherings of the kind among the unions of the county.

The importance of the big issues of the fall political campaign, as they are taken up by the white ribbons was sufficient to stamp the convention as distinctive.

Not alone is the prohibition movement to be urged by word; it is to be impressed by posters and literature, of which an immense supply was distributed for the use of the unions. The large posters will be put up all over the county to attract general attention and are very strong in their appeal to men and women, especially to voters. One of the largest posters blazoned in scarlet letters "Home rule as amended by brewers means rum rule or home ruin."

The principle address of the day given by Miss Mary Ervin, of Cedarville, secretary Loyal Temperance Legion, was listened to with much interest by an increased audience at the afternoon session. Miss Ervin said she had never taken up any work as inspiring as this lining up of young people in the temperance cause, nor had she ever found people more responsive. She showed the scarlet and blue caps and pennants which will be worn by girls and boys during the campaign. The caps show in white letters W. C. T. U., standing for "Young Campaigners for Prohibition", and the pennants the slogan, "The Liquor Traffic Must Go". Miss Ervin works largely through the Sunday schools and especially in the cities. The union as a body endorsed the movement.

The convention put itself on record as strongly in favor of suffrage. The memorial sketch of Lillian M. Stevens was prepared by Mrs. T. L. Haas and read by Mrs. Margaret Barclay, of Madison Mills. It was supplemented by beautiful tributes from Mrs. P. J. Hennessy and Miss Ervin. The annual address of the president, Mrs. Alice H. Taggart, impressed the delegates and visitors anew with the ability and strength of their chosen leader and was an inspiration in the work to every union. Sugar Grove union was awarded the banner for the committees on physical education.

The report of committees put in the following department superintendents:

Franchise, Mrs. Julia Kennedy and Mrs. Greiner; Flower Mission, Mrs.

Augusta Haines; Fair, Miss Della Templin; Mothers' Meetings and Evangelistic, Mrs. Alice Adams; L. T. L., Miss Ruth Hanna; Literature, Mrs. Amanda Post; Anti-Narcotics, Mrs. Florence Hurst; Physical Education, Mrs. Laura York; S. T. L., Mrs. Chas. Stafford; Contest, Mrs. Hallie King; Medical Temperance, Mrs. J. W. Hughey; Sunday School, Miss Stella Wetson; Press, Mrs. Mabel King.

Short talks were made by Mr. Clem Hopkins, leader of the Y. P. B., of Madison Mills; Rev. Ricketts and Rev. Hostettler on "State-wide Prohibition."

Rev. Hostettler announced the plans for organization of the county to defeat the brewers' amendment.

In connection with the department reports it was announced that Miss Stella Watson, of Staunton, made her mother a life member of the W. C. T. U.

A motion was made that the corresponding secretary draft resolution, voicing sentiment of county W. C. T. U. in favor of national prohibition and forward to our congressmen.

The invitation of Washington W. C. T. U. was accepted for the convention of 1915, and a vote of thanks tendered to the president, Miss Ervin, to the members of Presbyterian church for the use of the church and to the choir for its music.

A most enjoyable social feature of the day was the delicious basket dinner, brought by members of the different unions, and served in the church dining room.

The local union, Mrs. C. A. Stafford president, added hot coffee and attended to the serving.

BREAD PRICES TO BE RAISED

Great Advance in Cost of Producing the Ever Necessary Loaf to Cause Small Advance in Price in This City When Present Supply of Flour is Exhausted.

Within a short time, unless there is a decided slump in the price of wheat and sugar, the price of bread will be increased by the bakers in this city, the increase to be a few cents per dozen wholesale, and loaves to be retailed at five cents straight. For the present the price will remain unchanged, retail, but an increase of 2c per dozen wholesale has already been made.

The only thing that has prevented a general increase in bread up to the present time is that the local bakers had purchased a large amount of flour before the advance in price, and have been using the flour purchased a few weeks ago.

When the next flour is purchased, then the bakers will be forced to advance the price of bread as above stated, and if the price of wheat continues to advance, a further advance in the price of bread must take place, and it may be added that this is looked for.

STRANDED IN SWITZERLAND

Bishop William F. Anderson.

Bishop Wm. F. Anderson, resident bishop of this area, is now stranded in Switzerland, or rather was in that country when last heard from.

Under ordinary circumstances Bishop Anderson would have presided over the 103rd session of the Ohio Conference in this city next week, but the Board of Bishops, at a meeting some months ago, decided to send Bishop Anderson to East Africa to inspect the missions in that country and report conditions.

Bishop Anderson left for Europe several weeks ago, and was forced to stop in Switzerland when hostilities opened between the several nations.

As soon as possible Bishop Anderson will probably complete his journey, and in the meantime may be exposed to grave dangers should the Balkan states plunge into the fray and cause an uprising against the Christians.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY WILL FOSTER JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

Y. M. C. A. Women Plan Innovation in Assuming Charge of Junior Department Work — Two Booster Parties From Other Cities Coming Soon and Plan to Serve Luncheon At Y. M. C. A. is Now Under Way.

The responsibility of the conduct of the Y. M. C. A. Junior Department has been solved and from this time on will be assumed wholly by the Women's Auxiliary of the Association. This was decided at a meeting of that body this week and the members are preparing various plans for the financing of the project.

One of these is in connection with the visit of two booster organizations due to arrive in Washington, enroute about the first of October. One of these is the Commercial Club of Springfield and the other the Commercial Club of Cincinnati. Both have given notice of their intention to visit Washington but neither have named the day. The women of the auxiliary are arranging, as a means of increasing the Junior fund, to give dinners at the Y. M. C. A. for the booster parties.

Another project that is being discussed at length is the holding of a bazaar in the Y. M. C. A. building about the last of October for the same purpose.

The Junior department has become a problem with the Y. M. C. A. directors who find it necessary to use their funds sparingly and recently the financing of this branch of the work has caused them no little anxiety. It may be inferred then that the timely offices of the Women's Auxiliary will meet with the hearty appreciation of the board.

The project of securing a junior

secretary, advanced some weeks ago, has been discarded for what is unanimously believed to be a far better plan. Instead, the department will come under the direct control of a cabinet, composed of about twelve of the older boys of the department, and under the indirect supervision of General Secretary Patton and the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. This cabinet is already in formation. A meeting was held at the association building Tuesday night and the following four members chosen: Harold Hays, chairman; Richard Willis, secretary; Sherman Brownell and Glen Boots. The others will be filled in as organization progresses.

FALL FESTIVAL

Annual Gala Event at Chillicothe September 21st to 26th, Attracting Great Attention, With Everything Planned on Elaborate Scale.

Chillicothe during the week of September the 21st to 26th, will present to the public of Central Southern Ohio, the Second Annual Farmers' Fall Festival.

The Festival last year was a pronounced success—magazines throughout the United States published elaborate articles describing it as a unique and progressive annual gala week, something out of the ordinary.

This year it is vastly improved—more highly decorated uniform booths, more elaborate merchants and manufacturers' displays, and demonstrations, more gorgeous street decoration, more dazzling electrical display, more premium departments, more glittering pageants, a new electric horse stadium, more music and bands, new and beautiful monster electric umbrellas at the street intersections in the Festival district, five world-renowned free attractions,—truly the most wonderful exposition in all Ohio, and everything free.

In the horse department this year, the committee has arranged a Mammoth Electric Stadium. Here the lady and gentlemen riders and drivers will vie with one another for the splendid prizes offered. The Pony show will augment the interest in this department. Admission is free to the Stadium.

Exposition hall is a new addition to the Festival. Here will be found the Educational department, the exhibit of the Ross county schools, a demonstration of manual training work, domestic science, and all of the new and progressive ideas in education. The Art hall with hundreds of specimens of painting and decorating, the fancy-work department, with countless pieces of fancy-work,—and all free, as no admission is charged to the Exposition hall.

Not only has the Fall Festival attracted the attention of our state government, who are sending interesting display, but the United States government is sending its big and instructive "Parcel Post" display—the first time shown in Ohio.

Last year in the hustle, bustle and excitement of the first festival, some big features were overlooked, that are receiving a lot of attention this year. Last year, the parades were, with one or two exceptions overlooked, but this year, for weeks, this branch of the work has been receiving marked attention. Big Tableaux cars, emblematic of every class of mercantile and industrial endeavor, are under construction, and the pageants of the second Festival will be gorgeous, glittering affairs, outshining anything of this character ever attempted in this city.

"Chillicothe Night", Monday night, the big opening and dedicatory parade. Tuesday night, "The Appreciation parade. Wednesday afternoon, "Horse Show parade". Wednesday night, motorcycle parade. Thursday afternoon, "Bill club" parade. Thursday night, Fraternal lantern parade, 1000 uniformed Woodmen of the World, attending Woodmen conclave, will participate; also second review of the mercantile and industrial tableaux cars. Friday afternoon baby carriage parade. Friday night, beautiful automobile parade, and third review of gorgeous tableaux cars. Saturday afternoon, farm wagon parade. Saturday night, Mardi Gras parade, everybody en masque. Truly an array of demonstrations, all free, never before equalled.

At the World's fair at Chicago, the B. & O. railroad system had on exhibition "The Atlantic", the oldest railroad engine in the world, built in 1832. Immediately after, this precious old relic was taken to Baltimore, and placed in a specially built fireproof house, and no end of persuasion could induce high B. & O. officials to exhibit it. But this year, through extraordinary efforts, the "Old Atlantic" will be at the Fall Festival, and on Monday night it will steam over the city street railway, carrying Governor James M. Cox, Mayor James A. Cahill and other dignitaries, to the reviewing stand for the dedicatory ceremonies.

Chillicothe invites every one to her big free gala week, sincerely believing that it will be a pleasant, instructive and entertaining visit.

THE MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY TONIGHT

In Social Circles

A very attractive card party of the early autumn season, with the golden blossoms of autumn's favorite flowers, golden glow and golden rod, adding to its charm, was given by Mrs. R. C. Kyle and Mrs. W. B. Rogers Wednesday afternoon.

A congenial coterie of beautifully gowned women about forty in number, engaged in a five hundred game, the trophy, a corsage bouquet of Killarney roses, won by Mrs. J. M. Willis.

Assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. Joseph H. Harper, Mrs. George H. Hitchcock, Misses Gertrude and Edith Gardner, Louise Weaver and Hilda Kyle.

Mrs. Ernest Barr and Miss Clara Barr, of Greenfield, were out-of-town guests.

From the Ohio State Journal of Tuesday we cull an interesting nuptial event of the Capital city:

"There was a pretty wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Hanna in Woodland avenue at six o'clock last evening, when Miss Geraldine Hanna, their daughter, became the wife of Dr. Evan Coleman Brock. Rev. Dr. S. S. Palmer officiated. Miss Adelaide Hanna was her sister's maid of honor and Mr. Loring Brock of Washington C. H., a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Only immediate relatives were present. Dr. Brock and his bride left last evening for the East. Upon their return they will be at home at 991 Bryden Road."

Dr. Brock is the son of Mrs. Jos. Kimball, of this city, and a popular type of fellow, who has friends galore in Washington C. H., his home town. He is recognized as one of the leading younger surgeons of Columbus and is house physician at Mt. Carmel hospital.

Mrs. Kimball, Dr. Loring Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mallow, were the only Washington C. H. guests in attendance at the wedding.

Miss Irene Holahan has issued invitations for a party Saturday afternoon from four until six o'clock, at the Stinson conservatory. At three o'clock Miss Holahan, who has been a conservatory student all summer, gives a piano recital.

At two o'clock four tiny tots of the first year conservatory, Virginia Baughn, Gwendolin Baughn, Florence Hynes and Dorothy Post and one small boy, Vivian Baughn, will give their first program at the conservatory.

Miss Mary Robinson gave a beautiful six o'clock dinner in honor of her nephew, Logan Herbert, of Columbus, Tuesday night.

It was an affair of elaborate courses and table decorations of pink cosmos and fern.

After the dinner rugs were rolled back from the hardwood floors and the guests enjoyed informal dancing to Victrola music.

The guests were Misses Bessie Casey, Jeanette Weaver, Mary Alice Culhan, Jean Fitzgerald, Logan Herbert, Ervin Bailey, Paul Craig, Robert Craig.

Mrs. Nathan Snooks, of Columbus, is the guest of her brother, Mr. Sherill Clark, and family today, while here to attend the funeral of Miss Kingsbury.

DR. J. C. ARBUCKLE TO LEAVE DISTRICT

Dr. J. C. Arbuckle, former pastor of Grace M. E. church, but for the past six years superintendent of the Lancaster district of the Ohio M. E. Conference, is one of the four superintendents whose time limit expires this year, and he will be appointed to other work than that of district superintendent.

Dr. Arbuckle, whose pleasing personality and general characteristics draw friends to him wherever he goes is one of the best known divines in the Ohio Conference, and it is with sincere regret that the churches of the Lancaster district see him leave.

Dr. J. C. Arbuckle, former pastor of Grace church, who leaves the Lancaster district after next week.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Hon. A. R. Creamer is a business visitor in Columbus today.

Messrs Charles and Otis Jester, of Columbus, were the guests of Mr. Jas. Wood and family the first of the week.

Mrs. R. M. Riley, of Blanchester, and Mrs. Jones and daughter, of Columbus, are here to attend the funeral of their niece, Miss Carolyn Kingsbury.

Rev. A. W. West left Wednesday afternoon for Tipton, Mo., his little daughter, Pauline, not showing the improvement that has been hoped.

Mrs. Luella Herbert and son, Logan, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Herbert's father, Mr. George F. Robinson and sister, Mrs. Roy Hagler, and also with Mr. and Mrs. John Logan during the past two weeks, returned Wednesday morning to their home in Columbus.

Messrs. Ralph Sands and Willard Wilson, of Hillsboro, were Miss Dorothy Smith's guests Tuesday night.

Mrs. Dick Fullerton and brother, Mr. Ben Story, motored up from Chillicothe Tuesday for a two days' visit with their brother, Mr. Willard Story and family.

Mr. J. H. Sonfield, of Fort Wayne, Ind., representing the Smacks Cigar factory, was a visitor in the city for several days, during which he established the distributing agency for the Smacks Cigar with the Dahl-Milikan Co. This cigar is one of the leaders and well liked, the output being three million annually.

Mrs. Chas. Squier and Mrs. C. Faber, of Greenfield, returned to their homes today having spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Simmons, of Clinton avenue.

Mrs. Ellen Jenkins has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Jeffersonville.

MRS. H. V. CONN LAID TO REST

With services of beautiful simplicity conducted by Rev. A. W. West, pastor of the First Baptist church, all that was mortal of Mrs. Hannah Vance Conn was laid to rest Tuesday afternoon.

Sympathizing friends filled the home to overflowing and the High School teachers attended in a body. The pastor read the hymns "Lead Kindly Light," and "Rock of Ages" and made a short address. He referred tenderly to the home loving mother and the reciprocal affection existing between her and her children, and to the exceptionally strong character which had been tested out in years of invalidism and suffering.

The sons and daughters bore out their mother's casket, covered with flowers. A long line of carriages accompanied them to the cemetery, where the burial was made in the family lot.

There was a profusion of lovely flowers sent by friends far and near, among them a casket spray of pink roses and asters from the Washington High School; casket spray of asters from the F. L. Stutson store; wreath of asters from Public School teachers and spray from the Missionary Circle of the First Baptist church.

Among relatives who came to attend the funeral were Mrs. Clara V. Larkins, Mr. Jay Vance, of Hillsboro; Mrs. Margaret Gibler, Mrs. Carrie Lemons, of New Market.

OVERDRIVES HORSES WHILE INTOXICATED

Arthur Peterson, colored, faced Mayor Coffey Tuesday afternoon upon a charge of cruelty to animals, and another charge of intoxication, the former charge being filed by Commissioner Harry F. Brown, as a result of the young man over-driving a team of horses owned by Mr. Brown.

The young man had driven a team to Bainbridge and upon the return Tuesday night nearly ruined the horses by fast driving. Learning that Peterson was mistreating the horses, Mr. Brown sent out after him, and found the team and wagon at the roadside near Good Hope, with Peterson in an intoxicated condition in the wagon. His arrest followed.

When Peterson faced Mayor Coffey he said that two men had climbed into the wagon with him and had given him whiskey, after which they did the driving, and the next thing he knew was when he awoke to find himself in the wagon bed.

Upon the charge of cruelty to animals he was fined $10 and the costs, and for being intoxicated he drew the usual $5 and the costs, and made arrangements to pay the amount, whereupon he was released from custody.

It was necessary to work with the horses all night to prevent them from suffering permanently from the inhuman treatment they had received by over-driving.

HENRY IS RELEASED AFTER INVESTIGATION

John Henry, of Greenfield, who was picked up and brought to this city because he posed as "one of the men" who stole a horse from Jack Vance, a week or ten days ago, was released Tuesday after an investigation by Chief Moore and Mayor Coffey.

The man was detained, after he had, during intoxication, confessed to having taken part in the theft of the Vance horse. When he was examined it became evident that he knew nothing at all of the affair, and his release followed.

BOOSTS REVENUE HUNDRED MILLION

First Draft of the Emergency
Bill Completed.

Measure Increases Income Tax and Reduces Exemptions of That Law.
Taxes Wine and Rectified Spirits
and Increases Tax on Beer—Gasoline,
Also to Help Swell the Revenue.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The first draft of the emergency revenue bill that is to be passed in accordance with the plan of President Wilson was completed by the Democratic members of the committee on ways and means. The essential details of the bill which will be submitted to the house the latter part of this or early next week are:

First, an increased normal rate of the income tax, and a reduction in the exemptions of that law; second, a tax on wines and rectified spirits and an increase in the tax on beer; third, taxes on gasoline, sleeping car tickets, playing cards, cigarettes and a few other articles.

It is estimated that the changes in the income tax law will yield additional revenues approximating $35,000,000; the tax on wines $10,000,000, the increase on beer approximately $33,000,000; total $80,000,000. The balance of the $100,000,000 is to be raised through the levies on gasoline, Pullman car tickets, playing cards, cigarettes, etc.

The imposition of additional internal taxes is expected to result in a deterioration or a reduction in package sizes of the articles taxed. This took place when an additional tobacco tax was imposed during the Spanish-American war. The reduced size of packages continues, although the tax long ago was repealed. So far as the consumer is concerned, it frequently is stated that the government might as well have had the benefit of the tax during the last fourteen years, because the smoker has continued to pay for it. This consideration may rise again when the question of repealing the new revenue act becomes acute. Previous experience may operate to support Democrats in a contention that the additional taxes should not be repealed.

Under the proposed changes the income tax would be 1½ per cent on incomes of single persons in excess of $2000 and the same on married persons in excess of $3000. In addition, the 1½ per cent increase would be added pro rata in accordance with the increased sur taxes on incomes in excess of $20,000.

London, Sept. 9.—An official list of casualties of British officers is published here. It comprises 10 killed, 29 wounded and 46 missing. The Gordon Highlanders suffered severely.

SALVATION ARMY GETS A DAMPER

Los Angeles, Sept. 9.—The Salvation Army was denied a permit further to conduct its business in this city. The action was taken by the municipal charities commission and its effect will be to halt all activities of the army in the collection of alms and in the operation of industrial stores and workmen's hotels and everything else except purely religious work. The refusal of the permit was based on charges that a third of the money collected is sent to London and other centers. A rule of the charities commission prescribes that all alms collected here shall be used here.

It is customary in Quito when a visitor takes off his hat upon entering a room to beg him to put it on again, and, in the absence of permission, leave is generally requested. This, it is said, arises from apprehension that cold will be taken by remaining uncovered.

HUNTING THE CHINCHILLA.

Andean Natives Use Trained Dogs or a Sort of Weasel.

High up on the eastern slope of the Andes, in sections of Peru, Bolivia and Chile, the chinchilla has its habitat. Living at an elevation from 8,000 to 12,000 feet above the level of the sea, its chilly home is responsible for its thick, warm coat and also largely for the exorbitant price it brings. Such coats are hard to get and not plentiful, therefore they are wanted.

"It is a hopping rodent mammal," writes W. A. Reid of the chinchilla in the Bulletin of the Pan-American Union. "Somewhat resembling our common squirrel, and when standing upon its hind legs, as it does when eating, the similarity is even more noticeable. Ordinarily the body of the animal is about ten inches in length, exclusive of the tail. It is covered with a gray fur, soft and silky, which on the sides is about an inch long.

"Chinchillas burrow in the ground and live together in villages, like our prairie dogs. The natives of the Andean regions hunt them with trained dogs or with grisons. What is a grison? The South American cousin to our weasel and just about as cunning, and he easily slips into the rocky crevices, where the chinchilla seeks to hide, and captures it.

"Since the fur of the chinchilla was first introduced into Europe during the earlier part of the nineteenth century the price of the skins has soared until a lady's muff and collar of only medium size made of this material command a price of $500 or more."

Three Fortresses the Only Obstacles the Austrians Now Have to Prevent the Russian Advance—Strong Austrian Positions Stormed and Captured by the Enemy—Germans in Force in Posen District.

London, Sept. 9.—Russian newspapers publish a report from an authoritative source to the effect that there are signs of a general retreat of the Austrians on their whole front between the Rivers Bug and Vistula.

The fortresses of Przemyśl and Jaroslau, on the River San, and Cracow, on the Vistula river, are the only obstacles the Austrians now have to prevent the Russian advance.

Przemyśl is a strongly fortified military camp, 51 miles west of Lemberg and Poland.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the strong Austrian forts at Nicolajeff and Nikolajow, situated in Galicia, about twenty-five miles southwest of Lemberg, were captured by the Russians September 5.

The Austrian forts at Nicolajeff, which have been captured by the Russians, have enormous strategic importance. The city is at the intersection of the railroad lines leading into the Carpathian country.

An official statement says that Russian cavalrymen now are upon the crest of the Carpathian mountains.

The Austrians retreated from Nicolajeff, abandoning their supply trains. The Russians took many prisoners and also captured forty guns and great quantities of ammunition.

Aeroplanes are appearing on the Russian frontier, heralding the arrival of reinforcements.

The Germans seem to possess a powerful force in the Posen district. They move their troops from Posen to East Prussia or Galicia as occasion demands.

RUSSIAN RUSH IS REPULSED

Washington, Sept. 9.—The German embassy reports a new victory for German arms in East Prussia. A wireless report from Berlin says: "A column under command of General Kestranek advancing with the eastern army against General Dankel on Russian territory repulsed a violent attack of Russians and captured 600 of them. In the south Servians tried, near Mitrovioka, to break into Croatian territory. About 5,000 Servians were taken prisoners of war and much war material captured."

GERMAN CAPTIVES NUMBER 6,000

London, Sept. 9.—There are at the present time about 6,000 German suspects and prisoners of war in the concentration camps of Great Britain. These camps are located at Aldershot, Newbury, Dorchester, Queensberry, Lancaster, Dyfrim Hall, which is near Chester; Edinburgh and Templemore, Ireland. They are being well treated.

SOLVES FOREIGN EXCHANGE

Plan Outlined By the Federal Reserve Board.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The federal reserve board made public an outline of the plan evolved by the bankers' committee appointed at last Friday's conference of all the clearing house associations with the treasury department for meeting the foreign exchange problem.

The plan calls for a pool of $150,000,000 in gold to be contributed by the banks of the country, which shall be handled by a committee to be appointed by the New York clearing house association. Of this gold fund $25,000,000 is to be paid in immediately and deposited in the branch bank of the Bank of England in Canada. The remaining $125,000,000 shall be subject to call by the New York committee. This committee is to be charged with the duty of fixing the price at which foreign exchange shall be bought and sold.

Local committees subordinate to the New York committees are to be appointed by the clearing house association of the cities contributing to the gold fund and are to supervise the shipments and withdrawals of gold from their respective localities.

Teachers Win Fight.

Cleveland, Sept. 9.—The appellate court handed down a decision throwing out of court the school board's appeal from Common Pleas Judge Neff's injunction restraining members from discharging school teachers on account of their affiliation with the Teachers' Union and granted motion of attorneys representing the teachers that the motion to cite Superintendent of Schools Frederick for contempt of court be dismissed.

War Causes Woman's Insanity.

Marysville, O., Sept. 9.—Reading about the European war and fearing that her husband, who is in the United States army, would be killed, caused Mrs. Mary Low Patch, thirty-two, to become violently insane. Her husband is an officer and is now stationed in Texas.

Kids To Make Their Own Toys.

Cincinnati, Sept. 9.—Elmer M. Christy, the head of the manual training department in the public schools, announced that the pupils would be taught to make their own Christmas toys owing to the fact that the foreign war had cut off supplies.

Two Killed in Auto Crash.

Cincinnati, Sept. 9.—John A. Parlin, prominent manufacturer of this city, and Miss Lillian Locova were killed near Sandfortown, Ky., when Parlin's automobile, in which the party was riding, turned over a steep embankment.

Shoots Man; Kills Self.

Byesville, O., Sept. 9.—Following a fight among several miners at Trall Run, near this city, Peter Uhrin shot John Rachel in the shoulder and then fired a bullet into his own head, killing himself. Rachel will recover.

Week of September 14th.

William J. Burns, a former Columbus detective, has become one of the most widely known and most talked of men in the world today. His investigations in the past few years have been the means of bringing to justice many of the worst criminals in the country, and his methods of operation have been subjects of numerous newspaper articles and magazine stories. No hero of fiction was ever more popular than Mr. Burns, and he recently consented to appear before the moving picture machine in a play built upon one of his most famous cases, known in the history of the secret service as the "Philadelphia-Lancaster Counterfeiting Mystery," and the entire story is reproduced from beginning to end with all of its swift-moving drama and romance. In this picture, too, Mr. Burns reveals all the mechanical secrets by which the most ingenious band of counterfeiters in America endeavored to defraud the United States government of $5,000,000. He exposes the remarkable printing, the engraving, and the bill-splitting plants of the counterfeiters. Woven into this highly thrilling drama, is the exquisite romance of the daughter of one of the counterfeiters, who fell in love with a Burns' detective. Her renunciation of his love, and the final reconciliation when her father has broken down and confessed, gives a beautiful touch of sentiment to the gripping scenes. In this picture, too, Mr. Burns shows how the young woman detective, Florence Castle, was trapped by the counterfeiters and tortured until he finally rescued her from their den.

BADGES OF MOURNING.

Is the Custom of Wearing Black For the Dead Passing?

The notice of the death of an eminent man in London contained these words: "His wife and family will respect his urgent desire that no outward sign of mourning should be worn." In referring to this notice the London Times says: "The practice of wearing mourning has long been sliding into disuse, and probably the next twenty years will see it abandoned altogether, at any rate among the wealthier people."

According to the London paper, all badges of woe are disappearing from funerals. The black rosettes on the horses' bridles and the crapes from the hats and sleeves are seldom seen. So it is with black edged writing paper and black edged cards. It is all going, because mourning is not needed either for memory or respect. Here are two paragraphs from the Times article.

"Those whose sympathy we value will give it up without our advising for it; it will seem all but indecent to go about the world demanding sympathy of strangers."

"And if we believe that those who have left us have still the power to observe our doings we must believe that it is our hearts, not our clothes, that they will read."

All of which may seem a little unfeeling, and yet it is only to give an idea of the changes that are going on in the world of mourning.—Ohio State Journal

Streets Full of Beans.

Some idea of the magnitude of Ecuador's cacao crop may be gained from the fact that the main streets of Guayaquil are at present almost wholly occupied by cacao beans, placed there to undergo the necessary curing process, and the wharves are covered to a height of several feet with the beans in bags ready for export. The enormous yield is the result of the increased acreage and greater number of trees planted in the last few years. So long as the cacao crop continues to be so bounteous the republic will occupy an independent financial position.—Argonaut

Triplex Glass.

"Triplex" glass, consisting of two sheets of ordinary glass interlarded with a sheet of celluloid and amalgamated under heavy pressure may play an important part in automobile manufacture in the future. This glass will not fly about when shattered, but merely breaks up into adhering pieces, and hence will not cause injuries in case of accident.

SENSES OF PLANTS.

A Theory That Flowers See and Hear and May Even Talk.

Jean Vaud-Bruant, who is one of the most famous French horticulturists, has just published a little book on flowers, in which he advances the theory (I believe it is not entirely novel) that flowers both see and hear. As a young man, he says, he began to study flowers, for which he has always had a passion, and he sought to understand the habits of the blooms which he cultivated. When he saw the growing plant reach out toward the necessary support he asked himself whether the action was the result of volition and whether the plant had eyes.

M. Vaud-Bruant is now apparently convinced that flowers both hear and see. There are some that are sensitive to anaesthetic substances, ether in particular, which suggests the existence of a nervous system, like that of a nervous woman. And he would even credit them with something analogous to the power of speech.

"One knows," he writes, "that the perfume of flowers is a manifestation of vegetable life, a living radiation. Perfume is as much a vibration as an olfactory sensation. The perfume is the voice of the flower. A bouquet is a wordless romance. Each perfume or, rather, each odoriferous sensation corresponds with a certain rate of vibration. There is an analogy between the perceptions of sound, light and scent. The strong scent corresponds with the deep notes, while the delicate odors correspond with the shrill notes."—Paris Cor. Cincinnati Enquirer.

Atomic Attraction.

Hydrogen and oxygen gases separately may be compressed to the liquid form, and then the compression further is exceedingly difficult. But in the chemical union of two atoms of hydrogen with one of oxygen to form a water molecule the immense force of atomic attraction, or chemism, as one may prefer to name the force, is one of the most powerful in nature. It reduces huge volumes of the gases down to a far less volume, and the force is far greater than can be secured in any machine of screws, levers or hydraulic presses. Atomic attraction is perhaps the most powerful in nature. At least it is strong enough to hold atoms of steel and platinum together and diamonds.—New York American.

FIGHTING OUT TAX PROBLEM

By Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 9.—President Wilson opposes an increase in the income tax as part of the program for raising additional revenue for the government. House Leader Underwood, Chairman Simmons, of the Senate Finance committee, and Chairman Fitzgerald, of the House Appropriations committee, conferred with the President today and were told that in his opinion an increased income tax would not be suitable in the emergency because no returns would be realized until next year. In his message to Congress on the subject the President asks that sources of revenue be selected which would respond quickly.

BULLETINS

By Associated Press.

Tokio, Sept. 9.—The Japanese Diet today adopted the war program of the Japanese government. It provides for a war appropriation of about $26,500,000. The vote was unanimous.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The German Embassy received a wireless today from Berlin saying: "General headquarters reports that Maubeuge has fallen, 400 guns, four generals and 40,000 prisoners captured."

Berlin, Sept. 9.—Two more major generals have been added to the death list of field officers, Generals von Gotha and Nieland. Premier von Weizsacker, of Wurtemberg, and the Finance Minister, Von Breunig, of Bavaria, have both lost sons. Prince Frederick William of Hesse, was wounded in the breast in the fighting in France.

Long trainloads of wounded are now being brought to hospitals or forwarded to the interior of Germany.

YANKS HELD FOR SPYING

By Associated Press.

London, Sept. 9.—Several alleged Americans are among the refugees already placed in compounds by the secret service men. The cases of many others are under investigation. While none of the arrested have been shown so far to be a spy, many are declared to be unquestionably alien enemies of undesirable type. A large number hold supposed credentials that have been proven false. Several holding American passports are unable to speak English.

FIRST VETERAN REACHES THE U.S.

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 9.—The first veteran of the present European war to reach the United States, arrived in New York today aboard the steamer Lapland. He was Alois Von Neuhausen, of Gibson City, Ill., a Belgian who was returning home, wounded in one of the battles before Liege.

He went to Belgium about six months ago to buy horses for an Illinois horse breeder. He was drafted into the army and served in several of the battles. Before Liege a German bullet passed through his right hip. After this he was able to get his release.

BRING ENGLISH OUT OF CHINA

By Associated Press.

Shanghai, China, Sept. 9.—Reports received here today from Hong Kong say that the British Cornwall and Gloucestershire regiments have been ordered to Marseilles. The troops will leave Hong Kong September 14, using the Pacific Mail Line steamer, Nile, as a transport. The Nile will be conveyed by a British cruiser.

IN PACT TO STAY

By Associated Press.

Tokio, Japan, Sept. 9.—The Japanese government announced today that Great Britain had informed France and Russians that the recent convention signed by the powers of the triple entente, in which it was agreed that none of the three would accept terms of peace without the previous consent of the other two, must not be regarded as modifying the British alliance with Japan with whom Great Britain acts in common in the conduct of the war or in the making of peace.

ALLEMANG REUNION

The first reunion of the Allemang family was celebrated on the Harper farm at Manara, O., the home of Mr. George Allemang, on Monday.

It proved an affair of so much pleasure and fraternal interest that future reunions will be anticipated events of each season. A sumptuous picnic dinner contributed no little to the delightful sociability of the day.

An organization was effected with the following officers elected: President, C. E. Allemang, Manara, O.; vice-president, Mrs. N. O. Jester, Columbus, O.; treasurer and secretary, Mrs. B. H. Little, Cedarville, O.

Participating in the reunion were: C. E. Allemang and family, George Allemang and family, Manara, O.; Chas. Allemang and family, Miss P. A. Harper, Washington, C. H., O.; A. J. # FUNERAL OF LAD WHO SHOT SELF

The funeral services of little Harold Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Snyder, of Mt. Sterling, were held Wednesday afternoon, and a number of persons from this city attended the services.

The lad, who was playing with a pistol at the home of his parents, and was almost instantly killed when the pistol was discharged, lived only a few minutes after the accident.

Following the funeral services the remains were interred in the Mt. Sterling cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Clay Johnson, of Dayton, and Mr. E. J. Light and Miss Minnie Light attended the services.

I. O. O. F. PARTY REACHES TOLEDO

Word from the I. O. O. F. party states that they reached Toledo from Buffalo, Wednesday morning, after a very delightful trip, which even the roll and pitch of the vessel failed to mar.

At Buffalo and Niagara Falls the party enjoyed a pleasant two days' stay, and most of them crossed into Canada while at the Falls.

After conferring the first degree upon a class of 100 candidates at Toledo, tonight, the party will board a special train for this city, and will arrive sometime tomorrow morning.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGINS THIS EVENING

A large class of candidates is expected to start this evening when the High School football material will be put through the first preliminary workout of the season.

The team this year will be made up largely of new men as most of the old timers graduated this spring but the material looks promising and willing and Coach Schlachbach believes that he will be able to hammer out a pretty stiff eleven. It is expected that about twenty will report this evening.

THURSDAY LAST DAY FOR SWIMMING

Thursday will mark the close of the woman's Swimming classes, which have been held semi-weekly at the Y. M. C. A. outdoor tank, during the summer, under the direction of Physical Director J. W. McClung of the Y. M. C. A.

The classes have been popular and many young ladies have become proficient in the aquatic art during their continuance. That they will be remembered next year is the hearty expectation of all who have benefitted.

ANOTHER PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE

That the amateur sleuth who recently filed a handful of affidavits against some of the bootlegging gentry in this city, did his work thoroughly, is testified by the number of the accused who have entered pleas of guilty and paid fines.

The last to plead guilty and receive a fine of $200 and the costs was Chas. Bryant. $125 of the amount was suspended pending good behavior, and the remaining $75 and the costs was paid.

Joe Barker, who has not yet appeared for trial, is said to be too ill at the present time, and will appear later.

The remains of Harry Ewick, the young man who was electrocuted at Leesburg while connecting high voltage wires Monday evening, have been removed to Peebles for interment. His brother, Jess, employed by the Washington Home Telephone company is in Peebles to attend the funeral.

The young man is said to have possessed sterling qualities, and comes from one of Peebles best known families.

PLAYS WILLIAM TELL DESTROYS ONE EYE

A little girl by the name of Dillard, residing a few miles north of Cooks Station, lost the sight of her right eye one day this week, while playing with the seven-year-old son of George A. Hott.

The little lad was playing William Tell, and instead of hitting the apple, the arrow struck the little girl in the eye and destroyed the sight.

SUFFERING FROM FRACTURED HIP

Mrs. Henry Shough, aged 84 years, of Sedalia, is now in the Grant hospital at Columbus, suffering from a badly fractured right hip. Her condition is said to be critical.

Mrs. Shough was at her home in Sedalia when the accident occurred, and her advanced age is very much against her recovery.

Square Heels For Shoes.

The square heel, which has been recently patented by a shoe designer of Washington state, is an effort to increase the life of the heel and the comfort of the wearer by preventing the running over, which is a common fault of the present time. The runner always occurs to the rear of the heel, and this is prevented to a great degree by the increased amount of material in the new shape. The operation of running over is greatly retarded and the heel is given more foundation when the foot is planted on the ground.—Exchange.

Plating Aluminum.

A French metallurgist has solved the problem of giving aluminum a coating that will take a high polish and will safeguard it against the effects of the air and of certain foods. By successive baths of boiling lye, cyanide of potassium and hydrochloric acid containing ferrous chloride he produces a surface that takes a plating of nickel so perfectly that the metal can be rolled into plates, drawn into wires or hammered into any shape without in any way injuring the film of nickel.—New York World is just off the press. It carries 100,000 facts about Ohio—facts about business, agriculture, education, politics, your City, County and State; facts about everything you want to know about Ohio.

It is a Handbook that will interest and instruct every man and woman in the Buckeye State.

It has been compiled for us by experts. It is concise, comprehensive, thoroughly reliable. We are proud of this Handbook of ours. Its 300 pages are jammed full of authentic information—authentic because it was compiled by those who know. The work was under the direct supervision of O. K. Shimansky, editor and writer.

Among those who assisted in the compilation were Prof. C. B. Galbreath, secretary Fourth Constitutional Convention and former State Librarian; E. Frank Brown, fiscal supervisor, State Board of Administration; Miss Lucy J. Price, editor and lecturer; Judge R. M. Dittey, tax expert and former chairman Tax Commission of Ohio; Karl K. Shimansky, newspaper writer.

And what a lot of good stuff this staff did get into the 300 pages of our 1914 Ohio Almanac. The 100,000 facts in the Handbook include these important subjects:

Agricultural statistics	Farm statistics	Postoffice guide
Altitudes	Floods of 1913	Public debt
Amendments to Constitution	Game laws	Railroad guide
Canals	Governors	Rainfall
Census statistics	Industrial statistics	Referendum votes
Churches	Interurban railroads	Rural population
City populations	Laws, liquor, tax, game, etc.	Saloon law and statistics
Climate	Legal holidays	School attendance
Colleges	Manufacturing statistics	State officers, salaries
Compensation law	Marriage statistics	Statistics, about everything
Constitutional amendments	Mayors	Tax laws and statistics
County statistics and officials	Military history	Telephone directory
Crops	Mounds and builders	Vote, all state officers and
Directory of all towns	Party platforms and candidates	stitutional amendments
